RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

Do you want to better understand the Catholic Church?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes... and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not yet received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you'll consider the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church's beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church at Easter, when we celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process, to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE... AND ETERNITY TO GAIN!

For more information, please contact us at (719) 633-2132, Ext. 0 or rcia@holyltrinitycos.org.

Prayer: Into the Deep

While vocal prayer like the Rosary is good, the Doctors of the Church think it's not enough. For example, St. Teresa of Avila says, "If you do not practice mental prayer, you don't need any devil to throw you into hell; you throw yourself there of your own accord."

In this series, Avila Institute founder Dan Burke explains the foundations of prayer which he has taught to hundreds of seminarians and priests.

After distinguishing between the non-Christian East and Christian Theism and sharing key signs of false teaching, Burke tells us what mental prayer actually is...and then teaches us how to do it.

In his five classes, Dan Burke covers:

- Sept 17 'Yes'- Doorway to Authentic Prayer
- Sep 24 Clearing the Confusion
- Oct 1 Mental Prayer-Part 1
- Oct 8 Mental Prayer-Part 2
- Oct 15 Prayer, Conversion, and Witness

St. Simon Stock

Simon Stock was born in England in 1165. Legend has it that at the age of 12, he began living as a hermit in the hollow trunk (“stock” means trunk) of a large, oak tree. In the early 13th century, Simon went to the Holy Land where he joined the newly formed Brothers of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel.

He is believed to have lived at Aylesford in Kent, a place that hosted in 1247 the first general chapter of the Carmelite Order held outside the Holy Land, and where there is still a monastery of Carmelite friars.

On July 26, 1251, the Blessed Virgin appeared to Simon holding the Brown Scapular in one hand. She said to Simon, “Receive, my beloved son, this scapular of thy Order; it is the special sign of my favor, which I have obtained for thee and for thy children of Mount Carmel. He who dies clothed with this habit shall be preserved from eternal fire. It is the badge of salvation, a shield in time of danger, and a pledge of special peace and protection.”

Simon Stock became the prior general of the Carmelites, and under his leadership the Order spread across Europe and throughout England.

Today, the Brown Scapular is known and venerated the world over. (The word scapular comes from the Latin, scapula, meaning “shoulder blade”. That is why the brown cloth covers the chest and upper back.)

St. Simon Stock died in the year 1265. He was 100 years old.

The feast day of St. Simon Stock is May 16, when he was said to have died in Bordeaux, France. The Carmelites have honored him since 1564.

HOLY TRINITY ADULT CATHOLIC STUDIES PRESENTS

Prayer: Into the Deep

While vocal prayer like the Rosary is always good, the Doctors of the Church think it's not enough. For example, St. Teresa of Avila says, "If you do not practice mental prayer, you don't need any devil to throw you into hell; you throw yourself there of your own accord."

In this series, Avila Institute founder Dan Burke explains the foundations of prayer which he has taught to hundreds of seminarians and priests.

After distinguishing between the non-Christian East and Christian Theism and sharing key signs of false teaching, Burke tells us what mental prayer actually is...and then teaches us how to do it.

The Chosen

In our Into the Deep class, Dan Burke frequently cites the popular TV series The Chosen to illustrate what mental prayer means. He says that, if we are truly in union with God and communicating with Him, it will be like the Apostles as they lived with Jesus for three years.

To make it easier for us to imagine what that experience was like for the Apostles – and help 'put us in the picture' as we ponder Sacred Scripture – we'll show four especially-powerful episodes from The Chosen.

We will also include Catholic commentary from Augustine Institute scholars who analyze each episode's strengths and occasional weaknesses.

Mary and the Saints

We Catholics have a real advantage over our Protestant brothers and sisters, since we regularly request prayers not only from family and friends on Earth but also from family and friends in Heaven!

Knowing non-Catholics often struggle with Mary and the Saints, we'll share effective ways to explain and defend our beautiful teachings about both.

Saint Joseph: Our Spiritual Father

With Christmas so close, we decided, for this year's focus on one of the saints, to contemplate Joseph, who stands quietly in our Nativity Scenes and silently in the pages of Sacred Scripture...yet plays such a crucial role.

Join us to grow closer to the man who 'spoke volumes' without words!

Making Sense of Suffering

In Making Sense of Suffering, philosopher Peter Kreeft has the humility and compassion to guide us to the edge of life's greatest mystery – why bad things happen to good people. Agreeing that God initially seems to be part of the problem, not the solution, Kreeft first refutes Satan's 10 "easy answers" and then offers clues, all of which converge in Christ, "the tears of God."

In addition to the comforting clarity Kreeft offers, we'll share suggestions from Jeff Cavins on coping with pain and tips from apologist Brandon Vogt on answering those who ask why a good God allows us to sin and to suffer.

HOLY TRINITY ADULT CATHOLIC STUDIES PRESENTS

The Revelation to John

The Book of Revelation is, perhaps, Scripture's most misinterpreted book. Its vivid imagery and unfamiliar symbolism often conjure wild speculation.

Revelation is written in an apocryphal style, but it is not all about doom and gloom. Many look on our modern world and wonder: Are we seeing the End Times foretold by Christ in Matthew, described in Paul's letters to the Thessalonians, and symbolized in the Revelation to John?

In our study of Revelation, we will explore the wonderful imagery and deep theological meaning of this most misunderstood book. We will provide a basic understanding of Revelation's context within Scripture and history and discuss its important themes, its main points, and its strange symbolism.

Presence, Jewish Roots of the Eucharist, and The Mass

Encouraged by worldwide emphasis on the Eucharist—and by a recently-confirmed Eucharistic miracle – we focus on the Blessed Sacrament's preeminence and profound role in the life of the Church. We also incorporate beautiful videos which appeal to our heads and our hearts.

In God is with Us, we discuss the importance of the Eucharist and its Trinitarian dimensions; the two crucial doctrines; and the reasons Jesus comes to us in this way. We also view an incredible introductory video.

In The Story of the Eucharist, we study the types of the Eucharist in the Old Testament: Adam and Eve and the Two Trees; the Binding of Isaac; the Passover; the Manna; and the Bread of the Presence in the Temple.

In Bread for the Journey, we look at the richness revealed by the Eucharist's multiple names and see it as thanksgiving, memorial, and sacrifice. We also explore the NT signs pointing ahead to the Eucharist: the Birth at Bethlehem; the Wedding at Cana; the Feeding of the 5000; etc.

In The Mass, we tie it all together, focusing on the place where The Last Supper and The Passion are re-presented. We explain why the Mass is the most perfect prayer. And we discuss the structure of the chapel and symbolism of its 'fixtures.'

EPIC: Church History – Weak Leaders and Schism

In his Epic series, Steve Weidenkopf shows us that Church history is not a boring recitation of popes, saints, and encyclicals but an amazing walk through God's plan of salvation, complete with intrigue, rebellion, reform, and religious fervor.

This year's episodes cover Clement V's decision to move the papal residence and Catherine of Siena's work to return it; the time of the two anti-popes; the life of St. Joan of Arc; Islam's rise in the East and fall in the West; Queen Isabel's reign and the truth about the Spanish Inquisition; and more.

LATIN STUDY GROUP

A self-study group learning how to read and speak Latin, meets at the Hope House every Tuesday from 6:30pm to 8:00pm. Through our study we have learned to pray in Latin and improved our understanding of the language. We are self-paced, and help each other advance in knowledge of Latin. We use the textbook: Lingua Latina Familia Romana Pars I by Hans Orberg, along with the reading companion: Lingua Latina A College Companion. We are always open to newcomers who wish to become more familiar with the Language of the Church.

“Nevertheless steps should be taken so that the faithful may also be able to say or to sing together in Latin those parts of the Ordinary of the Mass which pertain to them” (Second Vatican Council, Sacrosanctum Concilium).

Pray in Latin!

Ave Maria, gratia plena, Dominus tecum.
Benedicta tu in mulieribus, et benedictus fructus ventris tui, Iesus. Sancta Maria Mater Dei, ora pro nobis peccatoribus, nunc et in hora mortis nostrae. Amen.
