Communion to the Homebound

Do you know someone in our parish who is temporarily or permanently homebound or in a nursing home and would like to receive communion weekly? Please call the office to schedule a homebound visit or to schedule a nursing home visit. If you are a mandated EMHC or would like to become one and would like to volunteer for this ministry, please contact the parish office.

Leave a Legacy to Holy Trinity

Do not put off planning your estate.... for we know not the day nor the hour. Good stewardship dictates that we look ahead and make provisions for our family and our Church. Please include our parish in your estate plans. For sample bequest language contact Jamie Crane, Director of Stewardship & Development, at 719-866-6518 or jerane@diocs.org.

Food Item of the Week

Feed the Poor . . . Please help us feed the poor by donating the following item of the week:

Catholic FYI

Catholic Responsibility to Vote

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

The duties of citizens

2238 Those subject to authority should regard those in authority as representatives of God, who has made them stewards of his gifts: 43 "Be subject for the Lord's sake to every human institution. ... Live as free men, yet without using your freedom as a pretext for evil; but live as servants of God." 44 Their loyal collaboration includes the right, and at times the duty, to voice their just criticisms of that which seems harmful to the dignity of persons and to the good of the community. 43) Cf. Rom 13:1-2, 44) 1 Pet 2:13,16.

2239 It is the duty of citizens to contribute along with the civil authorities to the good of society in a spirit of truth, justice, solidarity, and freedom. The love and service of one's country follow from the duty of gratitude and belong to the order of charity. Submission to legitimate authorities and service of the common good require citizens to fulfill their roles in the life of the political community.

2240 Submission to authority and co-responsibility for the common good make it morally obligatory to pay taxes, to exercise the right to vote, and to defend one's country: Pay to all of them their dues, taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honor to whom honor is due. 45 [Christians] reside in their own nations, but as resident aliens. They participate in all things as citizens and endure all things as foreigners. ... They obey the established laws and their way of life surpasses the laws. ... So noble is the position to which God has assigned them that they are not allowed to desert it. 46 The Apostle exhorts us to offer prayers and thanksgiving for kings and all who exercise authority, "that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life, godly and respectful in every way." 45) Rom 13:7, 46) Ad Diognetum 5,5 and 10; 6,10:PG 2,1173 and 1176.

Do you want to understand the Catholic Church better?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you will consider joining Holy Trinity's Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church's beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church, their foundation in Scripture and Tradition, the truth and beauty of the Church, and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church and to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

RCIA Inquiry classes typically begin in August.
