Leave a Legacy to Holy Trinity

Catholic legacy gifts are an essential part of the wishes of parishioners to provide for their parish, a specific ministry, or the diocese at the time of their death. This can occur through direct giving by way of a will or trust, through a beneficiary gift from a retirement or life insurance policy, or via an endowment through the Catholic Foundation of the Diocese of Colorado Springs to name a few examples. These generous gifts help continue the great work and missions within the Diocese of Colorado Springs.

Deacon Marc Wood is the Planned Giving and Legacy Officer for our Diocese. mwood@diocs.org

Almsgiving for Lent

Water for Life Pray. Fast. Share a Glass.

Joyce knows the murky water she collects for her children isn't safe. Her family often suffers from stomach pain and diarrhea. Still, she walks to a stream near her village in Malawi to collect water up to nine times a day. She has no other source of water. The best she can do is dig down into the streambed so the sand filters the water she scoops. Then she hopes for the best.

Your Lenten alms will help Church missions bring clean water — and good health — to villages in Africa.

Coin boxes can be found in the lobby of the church, save your coins and make a difference .

Lenten Retreat

Come Experience a Lenten Desert Day

The Franciscan Retreat Center (7740 Deer Hill Grove in Colorado Springs) will be offering 1-day hosted retreats throughout the Lenten season. These retreats offer you a convenient opportunity to step away from the noise of your daily life to spend some time in a beautiful and peaceful setting with the Lord. Includes room, meals, and talks – some retreats also include the opportunity for spiritual direction. Retreats will be offered on February 27-28, March 13-14, and March 18-19. For specific topics and more information, please visit www.franciscanretreatcenter.org/hosted-retreats.

Holy Trinity Choir

The Holy Trinity Choir Welcomes New Members

Singing in a choir is awesome for the body, mind and spirit! Get your New Year off to a fabulous start by joining one of the choirs serving our weekend Masses [the Saturday 5 PM and the Sunday 9 AM]. We rehearse just one hour before Mass starts in the basement. No evening rehearsal is required. Music reading is important but not required up front. Training is available and the on-line resources are abundant. Proficient Instrumentalists are also welcome.

Please spread the word too, many professional singers get their groove by singing in a church choir through middle and high school. I look forward to meeting you and praying for you!

Contact the office at 719-633-2132 or email shershey@holytrinitycos.org--if you would like to join our choir.

St. Cecilia, pray for us!

This year's Ember Days in February are the 25th, 27th and 28th. Please join us in prayer.

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

“Let your ‘Yes’ mean ‘Yes,’ and your ‘No’ mean ‘No.’” Jesus is calling us to be authentic witnesses to his laws and mission. Or at least try to be. While we are made in the image and likeness of God, we are not perfect. We are human, which is to say we are flawed, and we will fail. Still, we can make being truthful and trustworthy as consistently as we can a priority.

Whatever Jesus is calling us to do, we can respond with an enthusiastic “Yes!” And we can emphatically say “No!” to things that take us away from our calling to love the Lord, our God, with all our hearts, with all our souls, and with all our minds (Matthew 22:37).

What is God calling us to do, to be? How can we live his laws deeply and in a way that bring us closer to him? How can we, in turn, be his modern-day disciples who help spread his Good News and tend to those members of the flock in most need? One way is by prayerfully considering a gift to the Diocesan Ministry Appeal, which seeks to make Christ present today.

JESUS AND THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS

Perhaps the greatest archeological discovery of the 20th century gave the world the amazing Dead Sea Scrolls. As the oldest sacred documents of Judaism, the scrolls have many surprising connections to Christianity.

In this video series, Biblical scholar Dr. John Bergsma and Franciscan University of Steubenville president Father Dave Pivonka, TOR, reveal new insights into the Essenes, a strict, orthodox Jewish community that predated Christianity. They discuss the history and mysteries of the scrolls; what they reveal; and how they point to Jesus, the sacraments, and the early Church; and why they matter to believers and non-believers today.

FINDING HOPE IN GOD'S PROVIDENCE AND THE SHROUD OF TURIN

In Foretold: Finding Hope in God's Providence, Dr. Sean Innerst weaves together twelve pivotal Old and New Testament stories, showing how what was promised in the first part of our biblical history came to pass through Jesus, His apostles, and the Church. As he says, we can trust that the Divine Providence, so evident in Scripture, is also working in our lives today.

As we near the end of Lent, Connie Pratt will lead us in a study of the Shroud of Turin – the mysterious and miraculous linen relic many believe is Christ's burial and resurrection cloth. After detailing problems with the Carbon-14 dating which supposedly disproved the Shroud's authenticity, we will explore compelling evidence from history, tradition, iconography, textile study, metallurgy, botany...and the Bible itself.

Stations of the Cross and Soup Suppers

The Stations of the Cross are a 14-step devotion commemorating Jesus Christ's last day on Earth as a man. The 14 stations focus on the specific events of His last day, beginning with His condemnation by Pilate. At each station, we recall and meditate on an event from Christ's last day. Prayers are recited, then the presider moves to the next station, until all 14 are completed.
