Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Do you want to better understand the Catholic Church?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes... and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not yet received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you’ll consider the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church’s beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty... as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church at Easter, when we celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process, to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE... AND ETERNITY TO GAIN!

For more information, please contact us at (719) 633-2132, Ext. 0 or rcia@holytrinitycos.org.

Sacraments

Baptisms: Baptism preparation class is required for all parents and godparents, and they must be registered in a Catholic parish and members in good standing. Contact the parish office to schedule an appointment.

Marriage: All engaged couples participate in a Marriage Preparation Program (a policy of the Diocese of Colorado Springs). Contact the parish office AT LEAST ONE YEAR IN ADVANCE of your planned marriage to begin preparation.

Sacrament of the Sick/Emergencies: Dial 633-2132, x1002. Calls are monitored on a regular basis.

Funerals: Please call the parish office before scheduling date and time with a funeral home. The parish office schedules presiders, musicians, and servers in consultation with family members.

New Parishioners

Not a parishioner of Holy Trinity? There are many reasons to become a registered member: religious education classes, opportunities for Christian service in the community, letters of recommendation to serve as godparents and sponsors for newcomers to the faith, pre-printed tithing envelopes (if desired), an annual report of your charitable offerings and a subscription to the Colorado Catholic Herald. Registration forms are available in the foyers or online at www.holytrinitycos.org.

Vocations Prayer Calendar

Please pray for our Diocesan Seminarians and Priests. This week’s schedule is:

Feb 12: Sean O’Connor, Mt. St. Mary’s Seminary
Feb 13: Holy Cross Novices
Feb 14: Joshua Wojcik, St. Gregory the Great Seminary
Feb 15: Deceased Priests of the Diocese
Feb 16: Retired Priests of the Diocese
Feb 17: Kevin Ward, Mt. St. Mary’s Seminary
Feb 18: all men being ordained this year

Eternal Father, we lift up these priests, deacons, and seminarians of our Diocese. Sanctify them, protect and guide them, and mold them into the likeness and holiness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.
Adult Catholic Studies

On February 5th, Steve introduces us to three of the Apostolic Fathers, talks about the rapid spread of Christianity and explains the three parts of Divine Revelation.

Steve introduces Ignatius of Antioch, who wrote seven letters on his way to martyrdom. Confirming early Church beliefs, Ignatius stressed the Real Presence; the primacy of the Church in Rome; and the three tiers of Holy Orders.

Steve next describes Clement, a pagan convert who became the 4th pope. Steve shows us beautiful mosaics in Rome’s Church of San Clemente and leads us down to the 1st-century house-church built over an even lower level. He also explains the significance of Clement’s reply to the Corinthians who’d gone to him, not John, with a problem.

Finally, we get a start on Polycarp, a student of St. John, who was bishop of Smyrna and was martyred at 86. We then visit the ruins of St. John’s Basilica in Ephesus, the 1st-century agora, and the Church of St. Polycarp.

On February 12th, we conclude our virtual pilgrimage of the Apostolic Fathers. Steve begins with Irenaeus, the apologist who fought the Gnostics with Scripture, Tradition, and the authority of the Church.

We visit Lyons, France, to see the Amphitheater of the Three Gauls which, in 177AD, was the site of one of the bloodiest persecutions. We also see the Tomb of Irenaeus.

Steve then introduces Justin who said, after talking with an old man on the beach, that Christianity is “the only true philosophy.” (He later wrote Dialogue with Trypho and gave us the first written account of the Mass.) We visit his hometown, Nablus; see the well Jacob dug 4000 years ago; and go to the Church of St. Lawrence in Rome, where Justin is buried, along with Lawrence and Steven. We conclude with Polycarp and the miracles at his martyrdom. We visit the Church of St. Polycarp, the graphic Stefano Rotundo, and the Catacombs of Callixtus.

Please join us as we follow The Footprints of God!

Inclement Weather Policy

In the event of bad weather Holy Trinity will follow both District 11 and/or Corpus Christi Catholic School policy. If either are closed or have a late start, or are e-learning, there will be no 9 am daily morning Mass. Please be prudent in making a decision to come for the daily evening Mass if weather is questionable.
Catholic FYI

Bishops wear certain regalia which are distinctive of the Order of Bishop, the fullness of the Sacrament of Holy Orders—the pectoral cross, ring, mitre, crozier (staff) and pallium.

The regular regalia which identify a bishop are the pectoral cross and the ring. The pectoral cross (crux pectoralis) is worn by the Holy Father, Cardinals, Bishops, and Abbots. The word pectoral derives from the Latin pectus, meaning “breast.” This cross is attached to a chain (or cord) and is worn on the chest, near the heart. In the earliest times, the pectoral cross contained a relic of the True Cross or even of a saint. While not all pectoral crosses today continue to contain a relic, the tradition remains. Interestingly, in 1889, the Holy See recommended that the pectoral cross of a deceased bishop which contained a relic of the True Cross be given to his successor. When putting on the pectoral cross, traditionally the bishop says, “Munire me digneris,” asking the Lord for strength and protection against all evil and all enemies, and to be mindful of His passion and cross.

Bishops also wear a ring. In the past, a distinction was made between the pontifical ring (which would have a gemstone, traditionally an amethyst), and the ordinary ring (which would have the bishop’s coat of arms or some other design engraved on it). The ring, like a wedding band, symbolizes that the bishop is “wedded” to his diocese. Also, the ring would be used, at least in the past, to make the imprint of the bishop’s seal in the hot wax to authenticate documents. Moreover, in Catholic tradition, to reverence or “kiss” the ring of the bishop as a sign of respect for his authority is still proper; interestingly, a partial indulgence was attached to the reverencing of the bishop’s ring.

Trinity Treasures Thank You’s

THEY’RE HERE!!

Many thanks to the Cookbook Committee for all the work they did putting together this new, beautiful parish cookbook. The committee included, Myra Karels, Judie Scott, Louise Sanchez, Mary Vader, Trudy Devers, Sara Beas, Mike Bartusek, Cheryl Moloney, Diane Arbogast, Alejandra Hood and Susan Pavlica.

The cookbook committee would like to thank everyone who contributed a recipe, and especially the parishioners who were so kind as to type their own recipes into the cookbook software.

Cookbooks will be available after Masses through February and at the Craft Fair in March.

Craft Fair

The Spring Craft Fair will be held in the gym March 25 & 26, 2023. Please see Judie Scott for more information or contact the office.

Food Item of the Week

Feed the Poor . . . Please help us feed the poor by donating the following item of the week:

“canned vegetables”

Stewardship of Time (Prayer)

Stewardship is more than asking for money. It is often referred to as the “3 T’s”: time, talent, and treasure. Leading up to Lent this year, we will be focusing on the Stewardship of Time, which includes the time we spend in prayer.

This week’s bulletin includes a one-page insert regarding increasing the time we spend praying. It lists the many types of prayer, and asks you to spend some time reflecting on how you can increase your prayer life. On the weekend of February 25-26, we will be asking you to make a commitment in each of three areas: private prayer, public prayer, and prayer intentions. We hope you will join us in this endeavor to increase the time each of us spends thanking God for all he has given us.

St. Patrick’s Day Parade

You are invited to join Bishop James Golka on Saturday, March 11, 2023 for the St. Patrick’s Day Parade Mass at 9:30 am. St. Mary’s Cathedral, 22 West Kiowa, Colorado Springs. The St. Patrick’s Day Parade follows at noon on Tejon Street in Downtown Colorado Springs.
God doesn’t un-say anything. Today, Christ asserts that for those hoping for a ‘free pass,’ “Not the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law”. (Matthew 5:18). The law is God’s unchangeable Word, and all will be judged according to His law.

Yet, in as much as God will not recant His law, neither will He recant His mercy. Technically speaking, our hope should abound because according to Saint Thomas Aquinas, “It is more proper for God to spare and show mercy than to punish. For the former belongs to Him by reason of His nature, the latter only by reason of our sins.” (Summa Theologica II, II, 21, 2).

Yet some people don’t know His law. While God’s mercy may account for this, they will still suffer judgement under the law. Jesus gave our parish the task of sharing the Good News that He came to save us from our sins. Our Catholic parish is the most direct local route for our community to reach Him, and our Diocesan Ministry Appeal seeks to help more people gain access to Him. Please support our Annual Appeal today. We need your generosity, prayers, and advocacy. Let’s bring souls from our community to His merciful feet!

St. Paul Catholic School is the recipient of our tithe for February.

Join us for an important, information presentation. Saturday, February 11, 2023 Corpus Christi Parish Hall at 2:00 pm.

Fr. Sean McCann will speak on Catholic Teaching on End-of-Life issues.

Jamie Crane, Diocesan Director of Development and Planned Giving will present on the Importance and Impact of a Planned Gift & The Catholic Legacy Society.

Brett Simon, from Swan Law Funeral Home will show simple steps to planning your final arrangements that will help bring peace of mind to you and your family.

To ensure a seat, please RSVP to Kathy Bull at kbull@corpuschristicos.org or call the parish office at 719-633-1457 ext. 21.

Dinner will be held Sunday, February 19, from 1:00 pm to 2:30 pm in the cafeteria. The cost is $3 per person. The menu includes spaghetti, lasagna, Italian sausage, green beans, salads, dessert, and garlic bread. Please RSVP to Mike Bartusek at 640-8057.

Leave a Legacy to Holy Trinity

When planning your estate, please consider including Holy Trinity in your will. Bequests and/or planned gifts are wonderful opportunities to provide the Church with a significant gift in your memory. Contact Jamie Crane, Director of Development and Planned Giving at jc@dioc.org or 719-866-6518.

Communion to the Homebound

Do you know someone in our parish who is temporarily or permanently homebound or in a nursing home and would like to receive communion weekly? Please call the office to schedule a homebound visit or to schedule a nursing home visit. If you are a mandated EMHC or would like to become one and would like to volunteer for this ministry, please contact the parish office.
