Catholic legacy gifts are an essential part of the wishes of parishioners to provide for their parish, a specific ministry, or the diocese at the time of their death. This can occur through direct giving by way of a will or trust, through a beneficiary gift from a retirement or life insurance policy, or via an endowment through the Catholic Foundation of the Diocese of Colorado Springs to name a few examples. These generous gifts help continue the great work and missions within the Diocese of Colorado Springs.

Vocations Prayer Calendar

Please pray for our Diocesan Bishops, Priests, Deacons & Seminarians . This week's schedule is:

Feb 17: Fr. Brian Roeseler

Feb 11: Ian White, Mount St. Mary's Seminary

Feb 12: Andrew McFadden, Spirituality Year

Feb 13: Yunior Gonzalez, Sacred Heart Seminary

Feb 14: Joshua Wojcik, Mount St. Mary's Seminary

Feb 15: W. Trevor Keene, Spirituality Year

Feb 16: Peter Tran, Spirituality Year

Eternal Father, we lift up these priests, deacons, and seminarians of our Diocese. Sanctify them, protect and guide them, and mold them into the likeness and holiness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Adult Catholic Studies

On February 16th, Connie Pratt will present Prayer for Beginners (and Aren't We All?). Prayer is more important than eating, since the soul is more important than the body. In fact, saints are never made except by prayer...what Peter Kreeft calls "the hospital where we meet Dr. God!" Even cradle Catholics often wonder if they are missing something when it comes to prayer; they might even doubt that they are 'doing it right.'

Join us to learn how to deepen your relationship with God by doing the simplest but most important thing you can do: having heartfelt conversation throughout your day with the God who truly is love!

This presentation is for anyone who isn't good at prayer, finds it hard to pray, or makes excuses not to pray. We will look at steps to follow, words to use, and ways to 'make it work.' We will also learn the power of prayer – how even one moment of sincere prayer brings us closer to God than all the theology books in the world!

On February 23rd, we will focus on St. Joseph who is, after Mary, the most powerful of saintly intercessors. Aware of the increasingly-intent spiritual warfare in our world, the Church, too, is focusing on St. Joseph. As Fr. Don Calloway says, we need to bring him "onto the battleground."

In his book, Consecration to St. Joseph, Fr. Calloway shares a surprising amount of information about St. Joseph, who otherwise seems to blend into the background in Sacred Scripture.

Let Father introduce you to this silent saint, so you can better follow his humble lead. Join us as learn from the wisdom of the saints, the teachings of the popes, and the reflections of the theologians.

Our upcoming Adult Catholic Studies classes:

Feb 23	Consecration to St. Joseph

Feast of the Holy Face of Jesus

You are invited to celebrate the Feast of the Holy Face of Jesus with a Votive Mass with Bishop James Golka, Tuesday March 4th at 12:10 pm at St. Mary's Cathedral.

It will be followed by a Holy Face Hour of Reparation, where the community prays together to make amends for our sins against Almighty God. An 1879 Veil of Veronica relic image sealed by Pope Leo XIII, will be available for veneration. The Holy Face Novena begins on February 23rd and helps prepare us for the Feast Day. You can find it at praymorenevenas.com/novena-to-theholy-face-of-jesus

The Holy Face Devotion was given by Jesus in the 1840's to a Carmelite nun in France, to make reparation to the Triune God for blasphemy, as seen in disregard of the first three commandments. Jesus gifted her with the Golden Arrow Prayer of Praise, to counter these wounds. Immerse yourself in a Devotion that brought the Blessed Mother to La Salette, has the support of popes, the establishment of an Archconfraternity for all, the devoutness of many saints, including St Therese who added the Holy Face to her name. This Devotion is honorable, has produced many miracles, and is a remedy given to combat communism.

Holy Face images and information will be available at the Mass on the devotion, enlisting in Jesus' 300 Holy Face Army, Holy Face Hour of Reparation, and the Holy Face Marian Pilgrimage of Reparation to France.

You are welcome to join in this Revolution of Reparation and Hope!

Ladies Guild Bake Sale

The Ladies Guild will be hosting a fund raiser February 22 & 23 before and after the Saturday evening Mass and after the Masses on Sunday. If you would be willing to donate any baked goods, please see Judy Scott .

Women's Lenten Retreat

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

With the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus is establishing his priorities. He has just healed numerous people "...of their diseases; and even those who were tormented by unclean spirits were cured," and "everyone in the crowd sought to touch him because power came forth from him and healed them all." (Luke 6:18-19). It is the beginning of a ministry full of tender and compassionate miracles that reveal Christ's infinite mercy. He restores sight to the blind, raises the dead, cures lepers so that can return to society, makes the lame walk again. He heals them all. He doesn't pick and choose. Rich or poor, Jew or Gentile, physically or spiritually crippled – all are deserving of His mercy.

When He begins to preach, He continues to convey His concern for the lowly as He elevates the poor, hungry, weeping, and hated. We can continue His mission through our own preferential treatment for those in need, whether this need is physical or spiritual poverty, through support of the Diocesan Ministry Appeal. Please prayerfully consider a gift.
