Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Do you want to better understand the Catholic Church?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes… and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not yet received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you’ll consider the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church’s beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty…as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church at Easter, when we celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process, to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE… AND ETERNITY TO GAIN!

For more information, please contact us at (719) 633-2132, Ext. 0 or rcia@holytrinitycos.org.

Sacraments

Baptisms: Baptism preparation class is required for all parents and godparents, and they must be registered in a Catholic parish and members in good standing. Contact the parish office to schedule an appointment.

Marriage: All engaged couples participate in a Marriage Preparation Program (a policy of the Diocese of Colorado Springs). Contact the parish office AT LEAST ONE YEAR IN ADVANCE of your planned marriage to begin preparation.

Sacrament of the Sick/Emergencies: Dial 633-2132, ext. 1002. Calls are monitored on a regular basis.

Funerals: Please call the parish office before scheduling date and time with a funeral home. The parish office schedules presiders, musicians, and servers in consultation with family members.

New Parishioners

Not a parishioner of Holy Trinity? There are many reasons to become a registered member: religious education classes, opportunities for Christian service in the community, letters of recommendation to serve as godparents and sponsors for newcomers to the faith, pre-printed tithing envelopes (if desired), an annual report of your charitable offerings and a subscription to the Colorado Catholic Herald. Registration forms are available in the foyers or online at www.holytrinitycos.org.

Adult Catholic Studies

On February 5th, Steve introduces us to three of the Apostolic Fathers, talks about the rapid spread of Christianity and explains the three parts of Divine Revelation.

Steve introduces Ignatius of Antioch, who wrote seven letters on his way to martyrdom. Confirming early Church beliefs, Ignatius stressed the Real Presence; the primacy of the Church in Rome; and the three tiers of Holy Orders.

Steve next describes Clement, a pagan convert who became the 4th pope. Steve shows us beautiful mosaics in Rome’s Church of San Clemente and leads us down to the 1st-century house-church built over an even lower level. He also explains the significance of Clement’s reply to the Corinthians who’d gone to him, not John, with a problem.

Finally, we get a start on Polycarp, a student of St. John, who was bishop of Smyrna and was martyred at 86. We then visit the ruins of St. John’s Basilica in Ephesus, the 1st-century agora, and the Church of St. Polycarp.

On February 12th, we conclude our virtual pilgrimage of the Apostolic Fathers. Steve begins with Irenaeus, the apologist who fought the Gnostics with Scripture, Tradition, and the authority of the Church.

We visit Lyons, France, to see the Amphitheater of the Three Gauls which, in 177AD, was the site of one of the bloodiest persecutions. We also see the Tomb of Irenaeus.

Steve then introduces Justin who said, after talking with an old man on the beach, that Christianity is “the only true philosophy.” (He later wrote Dialogue with Trypho and gave us the first written account of the Mass.) We visit his hometown, Nablus; see the well Jacob dug 4000 years ago; and go to the Church of St. Lawrence in Rome, where Justin is buried, along with Lawrence and Steven. We conclude with Polycarp and the miracles at his martyrdom. We visit the Church of St. Polycarp, the graphic Stefano Rotundo, and the Catacombs of Callixtus.

Please join us as we follow The Footprints of God!

Feb 12 Footprints of God: Apostolic Fathers (Part 2)

Holy Trinity Adult Catholic Studies meets Sunday mornings at 10AM in the Hope House. Please see the bulletin boards or contact Phil & Connie at ppratt@holytrinitycos.org
..Birds have long symbolized the soul’s ascent to God above material things. Some birds are used as examples of specific virtues or attributes of the Christian soul (or their opposite: the vices), while others represent Our Lord (i.e., the pelican), Our Lady, and the saints.

The peacock is used to symbolize immortality – this from an ancient legendary belief that the flesh of the peacock did not decay. The Roman Catacomb of San Callisto contains a vault, in which Mass could be celebrated, with representations of the peacock decorating it. The thought of spiritual immortality would have been a great consolation to Catholics during the early persecution.

The blackbird represents the darkness of sin (black feathers) and the temptations of the flesh (its beautiful song).

The dove is well known as the symbol of the Holy Ghost, as well as representing peace and purity.

The eagle, like the phoenix (which also stands for faith and constancy), is a symbol of the Resurrection based on an ancient belief that the eagle would renew its youth and plumage by flying near the sun and then plunging into water. Since St. John the Evangelist begins his Gospel by soaring to the Divinity of Our Lord, the eagle, which flies higher than other birds, also represents him.

The falcon has two different uses in art. The wild falcon symbolizes evil thoughts or actions, while the domestic falcon represents the gentile converted to Catholicism. In this last sense, it is often shown in pictures of the Three Magi.

The goldfinch frequently appears in pictures of the Christ Child. Because of this small bird’s fondness for thistles and thorns, it has come to represent the Passion of Our Lord. When depicted with Our Lord as a child, the goldfinch associates the Incarnation with the Passion.

Saint Peter is easily spotted when portrayed with a cock; but, especially in Maronite art, the rooster is the symbol of the soul’s awakening and response to God’s grace.

The goose represents providence and vigilance. It is sometimes used in images of St. Martin of Tours, because one of them showed the people of Tours where he was hiding when they wanted to make him bishop.

The lark is a symbol of the humility of the priesthood, because this bird flies high and sings only when in flight towards Heaven.

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

The world can get inside us, often affecting how we feel. Living in the 21st century involves wading through a spiritual slog. The world is filled with as many opportunities for vice as virtue. We swim in a sea of ads, agendas, and social pressures. It subtly wears on us.

Jesus says that we, His followers, are the world’s way out. “You are the light of the world” is a weighty metaphor to describe us (Matthew 5:14). Jesus’ description of His followers might energize us, sober us, or make us want to run away, like Jonah the prophet.

Jesus believes that when we work through Him we are the world’s best hope. Our parish takes Him seriously. We trust that His words in today’s Gospel carry power. We’re going to draw from it. We know from experience that we can shine the light of Christ through good deeds. We need your help to be able to continue doing that for our local community.

Our Diocesan Ministry Appeal is a significant opportunity for you to help us advance our mission to bring the light of hope to our little corner of the world. Maybe, with your help, our Diocesan Ministry Appeal will be a link that will get at least one soul to the light of Christ. We hope for more than one. Give without counting the cost, and watch how God outdoes you. May He bless us!
