Vocations Prayer Calendar

Please pray for our Diocesan Seminarians and Priests. This week's schedule is:

- Jan 14: All the Seminarians of the world
- Jan 15: Most Rev. James Golka
- Jan 16: James McCann, Mt. St. Mary's Seminary
- Jan 17: Michael Pokorny, Mt. St. Mary's Seminary
- Jan 18: Dominic Ambuul, Mt. St. Mary's Seminary
- Jan 19: Johnathan DeCook, Spirituality Year
- Jan 20: Stephen Ambuul, Spirituality Year

Eternal Father, we lift up these priests, deacons, and seminarians of our Diocese. Sanctify them, protect and guide them, and mold them into the likeness and holiness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

REFRESH YOUR FAITH!!!

On January 14th, we will discuss Salvation, Purgatory, and the flawed Rapture Theory. We will learn the Catholic distinctions between redemption, sanctification, and salvation; see that purgatory, a cleansing waystation or heavenly anteroom, has biblical roots and is God's wonderful gift of mercy; and contrast Biblical teaching on faith and works with Luther's misunderstanding of them.

On January 21st, we will begin our study of the Sacraments which, as the Baltimore Catechism said, are "outward signs instituted by Christ to give grace." But we will learn that the dimensions of the Sacraments are much wider and deeper than that one sentence.

Beginning with a brief, general introduction, we will then turn to two Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism and Confirmation. We will explain their characteristics and Biblical bases; discuss their effects; learn water's symbolism in the Old and New Testaments; and highlight how the grace of Confirmation completes the grace of Baptism, empowering us to witness to Christ.

Our upcoming Refresh Your Faith classes are:

- Jan 14 Salvation, Purgatory, & Rapture Theory
- Jan 21 Introduction to the Sacraments; Baptism; Confirmation
- Jan 28 Sacrament of the Eucharist
- Feb 4 The Mass
- Feb 11 Introduction to Morality
- Feb 18 Preparing for Penance and the Sacraments of Healing
- Feb 25 The Sacraments of Service & Communion

Refresh Your Faith meets in the Hope House on Sunday mornings at 11:30.

Together for Life

Together for Life: January 21 As the state of Colorado continues to promote a radical antilife agenda, the necessity to engage our culture on the grassroots level has also become increasingly clear.

Not all of us have the time or ability to volunteer at a pregnancy resource center or to do Sidewalk Advocacy—but all of us can converse and engage with coworkers, neighbors, friends, family, and acquaintances. This battle can and will be won – one person at a time. But we need the right tools to do so.

As the fight to defend ALL Human Life continues, PPCFL will host a “Together for Life” event so we can discuss how to be more effective in communicating the truth about life to others. Join us on Sunday, January 21, 2024 at 1:30 pm in the parish hall at St. Gabriel the Archangel Catholic Church (8755 Scarborough Dr., Colorado Springs, CO 80920).

Adult Catholic Studies

On January 14th, we will begin our study of the fascinating, often baffling Book of Revelation. This week we will set the general context of the Book, discussing its main points and relevance; its authorship, audience, and purpose; its symbolism; and its historical and scriptural context. We will also touch on interpreting the Book with the mind of the Church.

On January 21st, we will cover chapters 1 through 3 of the Book of Revelation. Looking at John’s exile on Patmos, we will discuss his encounter with the angel who commissions him to record his forthcoming visions because “the time is near.”

The angel also commands John to write to seven churches in Asia Minor to comfort those who are suffering, correct those who are straying, and encourage all to persevere in the faith and ultimately conquer. We will also explain how those long-ago letters were also intended for the universal Church thereafter.

Our upcoming Adult Catholic Studies classes are:

- Jan 14 Revelation: Overview and Context
- Jan 21 Revelation: Introduction; Inaugural Vision; Letters to the Seven Churches
- Jan 28 Revelation: Visions of the Lord, the Scroll, and the Lamb; The Seven Seals
- Feb 4 The Seven Angels and Seven Trumpets
- Feb 11 The Seven Figures
- Feb 25 The Seven Angels and Seven Bowls of God’s Wrath; The Great Whore and the Scarlet Beast; The Fall of Babylon
- Mar 3 The New Heaven, New Earth, New Jerusalem; The River of the Water of Life; Epilogue and Benediction

Holy Trinity Adult Catholic Studies meets Sundays at 10 am in the Hope House.

Catholic FYI

The remote origins of the Liturgy of the Hours lie in the Old Testament practice of praying the psalms, which was continued by Christians in the early Church. With the peace of Constantine in the fourth century, Christians could for the first time build churches and gather publicly to pray in them. There quickly arose a tradition of gathering in the church as the day began and again in the evening for what was called Morning and Evening Hymns — that is, the praying of the psalms.

Contemporary documents testify to this practice throughout the early Church — in Palestine, Antioch, Constantinople, and Africa. It is also attested in councils of bishops in Spain and elsewhere.

In the morning and in the evening, Christians gathered in the church. If a bishop was present, he would lead; otherwise a priest would lead. The people would sing the psalms provided for the morning or the evening. Because they did not vary, the people could learn them by heart and sing them tunefully.

Other prayers were added from other parts of the Bible. In some places, a brief homily was given. The service concluded with intercessions for the needs of the Church and a final prayer. The origins of the Liturgy of the Hours, which follows a similar format, are readily apparent in this practice.

Snow Closures

Snow delays for Corpus Christi Catholic School or District 11, we will have Mass on Tuesdays at noon; no Masses if delay falls on Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday.

Snow closure; no daily Mass on that weekday.

Rocky Mountain March for Life

Rocky Mountain Rally and March for Life will take place on January 15. Shuttles from Corpus Christi parking lot start at 8:30am. Rally begins at 9 with prayer and speeches. March from Planned Parenthood to Corpus Christi for prayer, adoration and Mass. Pizza lunch to follow. Contact Julie Bailey with questions(jbailey@diocs.org)

Indulgence

Catholics will be able to receive a plenary indulgence through February 2nd, 2024, the feast of the Presentation in the Temple of Our Lord Jesus Christ, by praying before a Nativity scene in a Franciscan church.

This year marks the 800th anniversary of the first live Christmas crib and Nativity scene in the Italian town of Greccio, December 24th, 2023. In celebration and gratitude for this Christmas tradition for 800 years, the Church has granted to all Franciscan churches the wonderful grace of this indulgence. As a reminder, a plenary indulgence cleanses a person of all temporal punishment due to sin, under these conditions:

1. A detachment from all sin, including venial sin.
2. A visit to the Church (in this case the Nativity scene in a Franciscan church) with prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father.
3. Sacramental Confession and Holy Communion within 20 days before or after the visit.

The Catholic Center at the Citadel will have a nativity scene up until - February 2, 2024.

The indulgence also applies to visiting the nativity scenes at St. Francis of Assisi parish in Colorado Springs or Castle Rock.

Martyrs; Saints Thomas More & Saint John Fisher

Throughout the 1400s, the Catholic Church played a central role in the religious, cultural, and political fabric of England. Magnificent churches were built, monasteries thrived, clergy wielded influence, religious holidays were nationalized, and the Catholic Church collaborated with the state, in union with Rome.

Thomas More was born in London, England, in 1478. His father, a well-respected lawyer and judge, ensured that Thomas received an education at one of London's finest schools. At the age of twelve, Thomas served in the household of Archbishop John Morton of Canterbury, who was also the Lord Chancellor of England. Thomas' intelligence quickly became evident, leading to his enrollment at the University of Oxford to prepare for future legal studies. During this time, he developed a strong faith, influenced by the witness of the Carthusians monks, and he contemplated a monastic vocation himself. Although he eventually chose a career in law, his life of prayer and penitential practices blossomed.

...Thomas More refused to support the king's claim that he was the head of the Church of England

<https://mycatholic.life/saints/saints-of-the-liturgical-year/june-22-saints-john-fisher-bishop-and-martyr-and-thomas-more-martyr/>

John Fisher was born in Beverley, Yorkshire, England, in 1469. At the age of fifteen, Fisher enrolled in the University of Cambridge, where he pursued studies in theology. He was ordained a priest around the age of twenty-two. His academic excellence led to an invitation to remain at Cambridge, where he fulfilled roles as a chaplain, professor, and eventually Vice-Chancellor and Chancellor. In 1504, when he was approximately thirty-five years old, Father Fisher was ordained a bishop and appointed to the Diocese of Rochester.

Despite serving in one of the smallest and poorest dioceses in England, Bishop Fisher became renowned for his preaching, pastoral care, and adherence to orthodox faith.

Bishop John Fisher firmly defended the bond of marriage, stating that he was willing to die, just as Saint John the Baptist did, for the defense of marriage.

Catholic and cultural topics are discussed at the Sts. More & Fisher Society meetings. You are invited to join us with your perspectives and questions on the first Thursday of the month at 6:30 PM in the Hope House.
