Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Do you want to better understand the Catholic Church?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes... and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not yet received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you’ll consider the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church’s beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church at Easter, when we celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process, to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE... AND ETERNITY TO GAIN!

For more information, please contact us at (719) 633-2132, Ext. 0 or rcia@holytrinitycos.org.

New Parishioners

Not a parishioner of Holy Trinity? There are many reasons to become a registered member: religious education classes, opportunities for Christian service in the community, letters of recommendation to serve as godparents and sponsors for newcomers to the faith, pre-printed tithing envelopes (if desired), an annual report of your charitable offerings and a subscription to the Colorado Catholic Herald. Registration forms are available in the foyers or online at www.holytrinitycos.org.

Vocations Prayer Calendar

Please pray for our Diocesan Seminarians and Priests. This week’s schedule is:

Jan 15: Most Rev. James Golka
Jan 16: James McCann, Mt. St. Mary’s Seminary
Jan 17: Deceased Priests of the Diocese
Jan 18: Dominic Ambuul, Mt. St. Mary’s Seminary
Jan 19: Military Chaplains
Jan 20: Leaders who form the Seminarians
Jan 21: Mark Rocco, St. Gregory the Great Seminary

Eternal Father, we lift up these priests, deacons, and seminarians of our Diocese. Sanctify them, protect and guide them, and mold them into the likeness and holiness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.
Adult Catholic Studies

On January 15th, we begin at the traditional site of the Cenacle or Upper Room, where Jesus instituted the Sacraments of Eucharist and Holy Orders on Good Friday and the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Easter Sunday. We then go to two places where Christ’s intent to include Gentiles was affirmed: In Joppa, Peter saw the “pigs in a blanket” vision. In Caesarea by the Sea, he preached to Cornelius and then baptized his entire family.

We next return to Jerusalem, site of the first Church Council and of the Wailing Wall so sacred to Jews. We follow the ancient Appian Way to Rome and—after visits to St. Peter’s and St. John Lateran—return to Galilee to see the Chair of Moses, with its significance for our popes.

On January 22nd, we begin in Tarsus where Saul (tent-maker, scholar, Pharisee) was born around 10 AD, about when Mary and Joseph found Jesus in the Temple.

We next visit Jerusalem, where 15-year-old Saul went to study under Gamaliel. Steve also takes us to the Church of St. Stephen, near the site of the first martyr’s stoning. In Damascus, we visit the Abbey of St. Paul’s Vision and the home of Ananias, to whom the blind Saul was led. We also see St. Paul’s Chapel in the ancient city walls, the location of the daring escape which Steve illustrates for us.

During this week’s ‘trip,’ Steve Ray describes Paul’s Jewish training; his vision (and the significance of Christ’s words); his three years in Arabia; his 15-day ‘retreat’ with Peter; his commissioning for his first missionary journey.

We also learn about the challenge Judaizers posed when Paul returned to Antioch…and about the key magisterial ruling on the matter given at the first Church Council.

Please join us as we follow The Footprints of God!

Jan 15 Footprints of God: Peter (Part 2)
Jan 22 Footprints of God: Paul (Part 1)
Jan 29 Footprints of God: Paul (Part 2)

Rocky Mountain March for Life

Rocky Mountain March for Life
Civil Rights Begin in the Womb
Monday, January 16, 2023
9 AM to 1 PM, MLK Day

In January 2023, the center of focus for the Rocky Mountain pro-life movement will shift from the State Capitol to Colorado Springs. Respect Life Denver’s decision to forego their annual January Celebrate Life March opens the door for pro-life witnesses to gather in Colorado Springs for the traditional MLK Rocky Mountain March for Life. The theme is ‘Civil Rights Begin in the Womb’.

The day begins with a Rally on the Sidewalk near Planned Parenthood at 9 AM. (For parking if you intend to join the march, plan to arrive at Corpus Christi Catholic Church at 2318 N Cascade Avenue between 8 and 8:30 and ride the shuttle up to the sidewalk.)

In addition to prayers, the rally will include remarks by Catherine Wheeler, M.D. who performed abortions during her years of medical practice but had a profound conversion of heart and now speaks out as an advocate for the sanctity of all human life.

The March for LIFE will commence at 10 AM and will conclude at Corpus Christi Church where we will share more prayer, Catholic Mass, a pizza lunch, and fellowship.

Lay Carmelites

Upcoming Lay Carmelite Informational Meetings

As a layperson, do you feel called to a deeper life of prayer? Did you know that there are two branches of the Carmelite Order and that prayer is our primary charism for over 800 years?

Come and learn about the Lay Carmelites at our informational meetings at St. Gabriel Catholic Church: 10-11 a.m. Saturday, January 14, 2023 in the St. Joseph Overflow Room, 7-8 p.m. Wednesday, February 15, 2023 in the St. Michael Room

We live according to the models of the Carmelite order: the prophet Elijah and the Blessed Virgin Mary and Carmelite saints such as Teresa of Avila, John of the Cross, and Therese of Lisieux. For more information, contact Angelica Carson at 916-825-7444 or ltangel77@att.net. You can also visit laycarmcolorado.org.

Catholic FYI

Epiphany (also known as Twelfth Night, Theophany, or Three Kings Day), which we celebrated last Sunday, marks the occasion of a time-honored Christian tradition of “chalking the doors.” The formula for the ritual is simple: take chalk of any color and write the following above the entrance of your home:

\[20 + C + M + B + 23.\]

The letters have two meanings. First, they represent the initials of the Magi: Caspar, Malchior, and Balthazar, who came to visit Jesus in His first home. They also abbreviate the Latin phrase, Christus mansionem benedicit: “May Christ bless the house.” The “+” signs represent the cross, and the “20” at the beginning and the “23” at the end mark the year. Taken together, this inscription is performed as a request for Christ to bless those homes so marked and that He stay with those who dwell therein throughout the entire year.

Most often the chalking takes place after Epiphany Mass, and can be done at any church, home, or dwelling. Traditionally the blessing is done by either a priest, deacon or the father of the family.

Practicing traditions like the chalking of the doors helps us to live our Faith more concretely and serve as an outward sign of our dedication to Our Lord. Our homes are also the place where many of us will make the greatest strides in our spiritual growth, through observance of daily prayer, spiritual reading, and work offered as an oblation to God.

The chalking of the doors of a home encourages Christians to dedicate their life at home to God and to others. Seeing the symbols over our doors can help to remind us, while passing in and out on our daily routines, that our homes and all those who dwell there belong to Christ.

“May all who come to our home this year rejoice to find Christ living among us; and may we seek and serve, in everyone we meet, that same Jesus who is your incarnate Word, now and forever. Amen.

God of heaven and earth, you revealed your only-begotten One to every nation by the guidance of a star. Bless this house and all who inhabit it. Fill us with the light of Christ, that our concern for others may reflect your love. We ask this through Christ our Savior. Amen.

Loving God, bless this household. May we be blessed with health, goodness of heart, gentleness, and abiding in your will. We ask this through Christ our Savior. Amen.”

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

“Behold!” John says in the Gospel today. The Lamb of God is passing by. When you see him, what will you do?

He is beautiful. Will you wish to do anything except behold? He is spotless and radiant. John the Baptist saw past the appearance of Jesus’ humanity, into his divinity. Are you able to see past the appearance of the Eucharistic bread? Your neighbors? Family? Fellow parishioners?

John said he saw the Spirit descend on Jesus. The Spirit also descends on our Eucharistic bread at each Mass. Today, we humbly ask that the Holy Spirit descend upon our Diocesan Ministry Appeal. Just as the Holy Spirit gave Jesus the direction and strength to endure the trials of the desert, so too do we ask the Holy Spirit to direct and strengthen our efforts. Join in God’s purposes in our Diocesan Ministry Appeal. Behold, the lamb of God is here. Help us prepare his dwelling place.

Communion to the Homebound

If you know of a parishioner who is homebound and would like to receive Holy Communion, please call the office.

If you would be willing to assist in taking Holy Communion to those who cannot get to Mass, also, please contact the office. We really need you.
