Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 22, 2023
Baptisms: Baptism preparation class is required for all parents and godparents, and they must be registered in a Catholic parish and members in good standing. Contact the parish office to schedule an appointment.

Marriage: All engaged couples participate in a Marriage Preparation Program (a policy of the Diocese of Colorado Springs). Contact the parish office AT LEAST ONE YEAR IN ADVANCE of your planned marriage to begin preparation.

Sacraments

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Do you want to better understand the Catholic Church?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes... and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not yet received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you’ll consider the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church’s beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church at Easter, when we celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process, to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE... AND ETERNITY TO GAIN!

For more information, please contact us at (719) 633-2132, Ext. 0 or rcia@holytrinitycos.org.

New Parishioners

Not a parishioner of Holy Trinity? There are many reasons to become a registered member: religious education classes, opportunities for Christian service in the community, letters of recommendation to serve as godparents and sponsors for newcomers to the faith, pre-printed tithing envelopes (if desired), an annual report of your charitable offerings and a subscription to the Colorado Catholic Herald. Registration forms are available in the foyers or online at www.holytrinitycos.org.

Vocations Prayer Calendar

Please pray for our Diocesan Seminarians and Priests. This week’s schedule is:

- Jan 22: Fr. Stephen Parlet
- Jan 23: Anthony Ambuul, Mt. St. Mary’s Seminary
- Jan 24: Dcn. Thomas Pressley, Mt. St. Mary’s Seminary
- Jan 25: Holy Cross Novices
- Jan 26: All the Seminaries of the World
- Jan 27: Patrick DiLoreto, Mt. St. Mary’s Seminary
- Jan 28: Retired Priests of the Diocese

Eternal Father, we lift up these priests, deacons, and seminarians of our Diocese. Sanctify them, protect and guide them, and mold them into the likeness and holiness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.
Adult Catholic Studies

On January 22nd, we begin in Tarsus where Saul (scholar, Pharisee, and tentmaker) was born around 10 AD, about the time when Mary and Joseph found Jesus in the Temple.

We next visit Jerusalem, where 15-year-old Saul went to study under Gamaliel. Steve also takes us to the Church of St. Stephen, near the site of the first martyr’s stoning.

In Damascus, we visit the Abbey of St. Paul’s Vision and the home of Ananias, to whom the blind Saul was led. We also see St. Paul’s Chapel in the ancient city walls, the location of the daring escape which Steve illustrates for us.

During this week’s ‘trip,’ Steve Ray describes Paul’s Jewish training; his vision (and the significance of Christ’s words); his three years in Arabia; his 15-day ‘retreat’ with Peter; his commissioning for his first missionary journey.

We also learn about the challenge Judaizers posed when Paul returned to Antioch…and about the key magisterial ruling on the matter given at the first Church Council.

On January 29th, Steve Ray begins with a look at Neapolis, where Paul first set foot on European soil. We go to Philippi, visiting the prison where Paul remained even after an earthquake leveled the walls. Then it’s on to Thessalonica, Beroea…and the Areopagus in Athens, where Paul revealed the identity of their ‘unknown god’. From there we go to Corinth, a seaport known for sin, and Ephesus, where Paul spent two years on his third journey. Our next stops are Caesarea, where Paul lived two years in chains, and Rome, where he ended his days. Steve takes us into the Mamertine prison, from which Paul wrote his last will-and-testament, his second letter to Timothy.

We conclude our virtual ‘pilgrimage’ with stops at the site of Paul’s beheading, the catacombs, and St. Paul’s Outside the Walls, where his remains rest in peace.

Please join us as we follow The Footprints of God!

Jan 22  Footprints of God: Paul (Part 1)
Jan 29  Footprints of God: Paul (Part 2)
Feb 5   Footprints of God: Apostolic Fathers (Part 1)
Feb 12  Footprints of God: Apostolic Fathers (Part 2)

Holy Trinity Adult Catholic Studies meets Sunday mornings at 10AM in the Hope House. Please see the bulletin boards or contact Phil & Connie at ppratt@holytrinitycos.org

Please be prudent in making a decision to come for the daily evening Mass if weather is questionable.
Rocky Mountain March for Life

The Catholic schools are beginning enrollment for the 2023-2024 school year. We encourage families to visit the schools to see a learning environment that assists parents in their duty of fostering within their child’s growth in the theological, intellectual and moral virtues. Our schools boldly form students in the intellectual tradition of our Catholic faith.

The Bishop’s Scholarship Fund provides tuition assistance to families who have a demonstrated need. Families can apply on line through FACTS.

Lay Carmelites

Upcoming Lay Carmelite Informational Meetings

As a layperson, do you feel called to a deeper life of prayer? Did you know that there are two branches of the Carmelite Order and that prayer is our primary charism for over 800 years?

Come and learn about the Lay Carmelites at our informational meetings at St. Gabriel Catholic Church: 10-11 a.m. Saturday, January 14, 2023 in the St. Joseph Overflow Room, 7-8 p.m. Wednesday, February 15, 2023 in the St. Michael Room

We live according to the models of the Carmelite order: the prophet Elijah and the Blessed Virgin Mary and Carmelite saints such as Teresa of Avila, John of the Cross, and Therese of Lisieux. For more information, contact Angelica Carson at 916-825-7444 or ltangel77@att.net. You can also visit laycarmcolorado.org.

Catholic FYI

What is the Feast of the Presentation?

This feast day celebrates both the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple, as well as the Purification of Mary, which was required by the Mosaic Law forty days after the birth of a child.

The Church celebrates the feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd, also called Candlemas for the custom of using lighted candles. In the early Church it was often celebrated on February 14th, 40 days after the Epiphany, in keeping with the practice of celebrating Christmas on that date in the East. Among the Orthodox it is known as the Hypapante (“Meeting” of the Lord with Simeon).

Contribution Statements

2022 Contributions Statements went out over email this week. If you do not have email, please check the north lobby for a printed copy of your statement. If you need or want a printed statement, please call the office.

What would it have been like for Jesus to hear that his cousin John had been imprisoned? Bravely, John called the Pharisees, Israelites, and Herod alike to repentance. Even before his birth, John showed that he was wholly given to proclaiming Christ’s coming—even leaping in the womb.

Such tenacity could not have been lost on Jesus. John’s total commitment to preaching repentance must have moved Jesus. Just as Jesus wept at the death of his friend Lazarus, Certainly, he must have been deeply grieved by his cousin John’s arrest and eventual murder.

Through such trials, Jesus saw his heavenly Father moving. Today’s Gospel implies that Jesus may have viewed John’s incarceration as the “hour” to begin preaching the message of repentance himself. Jesus “picked up the baton” in Matthew 4:17. This included both a message of love for the lost and condemnation for the wicked in power. It also began the chain of events that would end in his execution. Yet, he didn’t do it alone. He asked many to join him. Today, he invites our parish community into the same mission: to preach the good news and repentance. Please support our Diocesan Ministry Appeal as one way of helping our parish preach his word. The resistance is mighty, and the audience is hungry for it. Pray for the Diocesan Ministry Appeal and join in whatever way God asks you!

If you know of a parishioner who is homebound and would like to receive Holy Communion, please call the office.

If you would be willing to assist in taking Holy Communion to those who cannot get to Mass, also, please contact the office. We really need you.

Do you know someone in our parish who is temporarily or permanently homebound or in a nursing home and would like to receive communion weekly? Please call the office to schedule a homebound visit or to schedule a nursing home visit. If you are a mandated EMHC or would like to become one and would like to volunteer for this ministry, please contact the parish office.

Leave a Legacy to Holy Trinity

When planning your estate, please consider including Holy Trinity in your will. Bequests and/or planned gifts are wonderful opportunities to provide the Church with a significant gift in your memory. Contact Jamie Crane, Director of Development and Planned Giving at jcrane@diocsz.org or 719-866-6518.

If you have moved, changed your phone number, name or email address, have a new baby in the family or a child who is no longer living at home, please let us know so we may update your registration. Please call the church office at 633-2132 or email htparishoffice@holytrinitycos.org.

Update Membership Information

Bulletin announcements must be submitted no later than noon on Tuesday. Please send announcements to: htparishoffice@holytrinitycos.org.
