Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Do you want to better understand the Catholic Church?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes… and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not yet received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you’ll consider the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church’s beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty…as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church at Easter, when we celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process, to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE… AND ETERNITY TO GAIN!

For more information, please contact us at (719) 633-2132, Ext. 0 or rcia@holytrinitycos.org.

Adult Catholic Studies

On January 29th, we begin at Neapolis, where Paul first set foot on European soil. We go to Philippi, visiting the prison where Paul remained even after an earthquake leveled the walls. Then it’s on to Thessalonica, Beroea, and Athens, where Paul revealed the Athenian ‘unknown god’.

After stops in Corinth and Ephesus, we go to Caesarea, where Paul lived two years in chains, and Rome, where he died. We go down into the Mamertine prison, from which Paul wrote his last will-and-testament, Second Timothy.

We conclude our virtual ‘pilgrimage’ with stops at the site of Paul’s beheading, the catacombs, and St. Paul’s Outside the Walls, where his remains rest in peace.

On February 5th, Steven introduces us to three of the Apostolic Fathers who lived in the 200 years after Christ. (Steve says that, by the 2nd century, Christianity had spread across the empire, due in part to the pax romano, the road system, and the universal Greek language. He also explains the Church’s emphasis on the three parts of Divine Revelation: Scripture, Tradition, and Magisterium.)

Steve introduces Ignatius of Antioch, who wrote seven letters on his way to martyrdom. Confirming early Church beliefs, Ignatius stressed the Real Presence; the primacy of the Church in Rome; and the three-tiered Holy Orders.

Steve next describes Clement, a pagan convert who became the 4th pope. He shows us beautiful mosaics in the Church of San Clemente and leads us down to the first-century house-church built over an even lower level. He also explains the significance of Clement’s reply to the Corinthians who’d gone to him, not John, with a problem.

Finally, we learn about Polycarp, a student of St. John, who became bishop of Smyrna (now Izmir) and was martyred at 86. We then visit the ruins of St. John’s Basilica in Ephesus, the 1st-century agora, and the Church of St. Polycarp.

Please join us as we follow The Footprints of God!

Jan 22  Footprints of God: Paul (Part 1)
Jan 29  Footprints of God: Paul (Part 2)
Feb 5   Footprints of God: Apostolic Fathers (Part 1)
Feb 12  Footprints of God: Apostolic Fathers (Part 2)

Catholic FYI

The celebration of St. Blaise and the blessing of throats falls on February 3rd in the Western Church and February 11th in the Eastern Church. We do not know much about St. Blaise except that he was a fourth-century bishop in the city of Sebaste, Western Armenia, and died as a martyr. A physician, he was regarded as a righteous man and, at an early age, elected bishop by the citizens of Sebaste. Beyond those few facts, much of what we know of Blaise comes from legends. He became, during the Middle Ages, one of the most popular of all the saints and today remains highly esteemed, especially in Armenia. He is the patron saint of Dubrovnik, Croatia. His relationship with Dubrovnik is unique in that he never visited the city. In 971, he appeared in a vision to a local man warning that a Venetian force was about to invade the town. The townspeople responded with defensive measures and the Venetians, having lost the element of surprise, departed.

The miraculous cure of the boy suffering from the fish bone — and because Blaise had been a physician — created the belief that St. Blaise could cure most illnesses but especially those of the throat. As early as the 9th century in the Western Church, he was invoked for throat ailments, and by the 15th century, the blessing of the throat ritual had begun.

Today Jesus said in the Gospel, “Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.” (Matthew 5:12) He commanded us to rejoice in our persecution. Jesus doesn’t ask us to rejoice in pain for pain’s sake. As He faced His agony, Jesus Himself asked that the cup of suffering “might pass from Me.” Jesus shares our very human and very good desire to avoid pain when it makes sense to do so. He commanded us to rejoice when in pain for His sake.

“If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you,” He candidly reminded those following Him (John 15:20). Pain comes to those who follow Him. That’s the bad news. The good news is it will eventually be okay—more than OK. We will possess Him in perfect beatitude one day. It’s worth anything this valley of tears can throw at us because the valley has an end. Today, Jesus entrusts our parish with the mission to help local Christians make it there. With your help, our Diocesan Ministry Appeal will enable us to reach those Jesus asks. Jesus is meek, merciful, pure of heart, and Himself persecuted like no one else. Please help us to shine as brightly as Jesus’ face did when He first revealed the beatitudes. Jesus is the way, and He will show you which way to help.
