Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Do you want to understand the Catholic Church better?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you will consider joining Holy Trinity's Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church's beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church, their foundation in Scripture and Tradition, the truth and beauty of the Church, and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church and to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

RCIA Inquiry classes typically begin in August.

Thank you cards; statues

Mary McLean, the former business office manager at Holy Trinity, painted the beautiful colors on our statues of the Blessed Mother and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Didn't she do an incredible job? If you would like to send a thank you card, please bring your card to Mass the weekend of July 27-28. Susan Pavlica has volunteered to deliver the cards to Mary. Please place cards in the baskets at either entrance.

Catholic FYI

Saints

"How many saints are there?" This is a big question, with a big answer.

The short answer is, "more than 10,000." In fact, it is probably more than 11,000 by now. The commonly cited 10,000 figure is already a decade old, dating back to the end of Pope Benedict XVI's pontificate, and since then there's been some mass canonizations. Specifically, the 799 residents of Otranto, Italy, who were killed by the Ottomans in 1480, for refusing to convert to Islam.

A problem for the Church is there isn't an official, complete, comprehensive list of these 11,000 names. And in fact, not all the names exist. For example, there is really no way for the Church to know the identities of every person killed by the Ottomans in 1480. The Church knows they are saints because they gave their lives for the faith, but we do not know their names.

In addition, there are many saints who are more-or-less lost to time.

To put it plainly, the Church does not make people saints, it simply recognizes people as saints.

The fact is, the actual number of saints could be in the literal millions, or even billions, depending on how God works to save human souls, which we assume to be quite diligently. However, in the meantime, the Catholic Church recognizes about 11,000 saints, and of that number there are certainly many whose names are unknown, and whose historicity is debatable.
