Communion to the Homebound

Do you know someone in our parish who is temporarily or permanently homebound or in a nursing home and would like to receive communion weekly? Please call the office to schedule a homebound visit or to schedule a nursing home visit. If you are a mandated EMHC or would like to become one and would like to volunteer for this ministry, please contact the parish office.

Leave a Legacy to Holy Trinity

Catholic legacy gifts are an essential part of the wishes of parishioners to provide for their parish, a specific ministry, or the diocese at the time of their death. This can occur through direct giving by way of a will or trust, through a beneficiary gift from a retirement or life insurance policy, or via an endowment through the Catholic Foundation of the Diocese of Colorado Springs to name a few examples. These generous gifts help continue the great work and missions within the Diocese of Colorado Springs.

Deacon Marc Wood is the Planned Giving and Legacy Officer for our Diocese. mwood@diocs.org

Novena for Pope Leo XIV

O Holy Virgin Mary, Mother of the Lord of Heaven and of Earth, Our Lady of Guadalupe, guide and protect the Roman Pontiff, Pope Leo XIV. Through your intercession, may he receive in abundance the grace of the Successor of Saint Peter: the perpetual and visible source and foundation of the unity of our Bishops and of all our brothers and sisters in the Mystical Body of your Divine Son. Unite Pope Leo's heart to your Immaculate Heart, leading him to rest his heart ever more securely in the glorious-pierced Heart of Jesus, so that he may confirm us in the Catholic faith, in the worship of God in spirit and truth, and in a good and holy Christian life.

In the tumult of the present time, keep Pope Leo securely within the hollow of your mantle, in the crossing of your arms, protecting him from Satan, the Father of Lies, and from every evil spirit. Implore Our Lord to grant him, in particular, the wisdom and courage to be a true Shepherd of the Church throughout the world. With you, I place all my trust in Christ, the Good Shepherd, Who alone is our help and salvation. Amen.

Heart of Jesus, formed by the Holy Spirit in the womb of the Virgin Mother, have mercy upon us!

Our Lady of Guadalupe, Queen of the Apostles, pray for us!

Saints Peter and Paul, pray for us!

Pope Saint Leo the Great, pray for us!

Vincentian Congregation

Fr. Joseph J Arackal V.C., a Vincentian Missionary Priest, will be in our parish on weekend of July 05 & 06, 2025 to participate in our Annual Missionary Cooperation Plan. He will preach at all the Masses and will make an appeal on behalf of the Vincentian Missions.

The Vincentian Congregation (V.C.), a missionary sending Religious Congregation, was founded in Kerala, India, modeled after the Congregation of the Mission founded by St. Vincent de Paul. Members of this flourishing Religious Congregation, are engaged in Mission Work in all parts of India, Sri Lanka, Nepal and South Africa. The Vincentian Missionaries need our help to carry out their many missionary, educational and charitable activities in their missions.

Proceeds from the Mission Appeals in our Parish will be used (1) to provide excellent training and formation for the Vincentian Seminarians; (2) to provide Christ-centered education to thousands of children in the De Paul Schools and job training for the youth in their Technical Colleges; (3) to bring the Gospel to the Non-Christians; (4) to support the New Evangelization Ministry through popular Mission retreats, Bible Conventions and Residential Retreats, etc. bringing a good dose of joy and enthusiasm for the Faith.

There will be a special mission collection to help the Missionary work of the Vincentian Missionaries. We urge you to be very generous in your mission offering since these Missionaries need our help. Please keep Fr. Joseph and all the Vincentian Missionaries and seminarians in your prayers.

The Colorado Catholic Herald

The Colorado Catholic Herald will be transitioning to a bimonthly (every two months) magazine format effective Aug. 1. The last issue of the newspaper will be published July 11, 2025.

Please pray for...

Please pray for Louis Meyer who passed into eternal life June 27, 2025.

*"Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord,
and may perpetual light shine upon him.
May the souls of the faithful departed
through the mercy of God rest in peace."*

Catholic FYI

He could have been free, but he chose slavery. He could have been wealthy, but he chose generosity. He could have been a saint, and that's what the Archdiocese of New York contends Venerable Pierre Toussaint was.

Born into slavery in 1766, Toussaint traveled from Haiti to New York in 1787 with his owners, the Bérards. The Bérards planned to return to their Haitian plantation, but then Haiti's slaves rebelled. After the violence ended, Toussaint's master, Jean Bérard, went home to assess their losses. He died while there. Back in New York, his wife was left almost penniless... but not alone.

Shortly before the rebellion, the Bérards had sent Toussaint to learn the trade of hairdressing. He proved talented, and New York's finest clamored for his services. Soon Toussaint earned enough to buy his freedom.

When news came of Jean Bérard's death, however, Toussaint chose to remain a slave. He loved the Bérards. They treated him like a son, taught him to read, and raised him in the Catholic faith. He didn't want to abandon his mistress in her poverty. So, he stayed with her, supporting her from his earnings until her death in 1807.

After that, as a free man, Toussaint continued his work and found a wife, Juliette, who shared both his Catholic faith and charitable inclinations. Together, the couple used Toussaint's earnings to found a school for orphaned African-Americans, purchase freedom for dozens of slaves, provide food and housing for whites and blacks alike, aid refugees, and support the Catholic churches of New York. Numbered among those churches were St. Patrick's Old Cathedral and Toussaint's own parish, old St. Peter's, where he attended daily Mass for 66 years. Toussaint also took in orphans, nursed the sick, and provided spiritual counsel to clergy and laity alike.

When he died on June 30, 1853, his pastor told the huge crowd of mourners, "There were very few left among the clergy superior to him in devotion and zeal for the Church and for the glory of God; among laymen, none."

Volunteers Needed

Volunteers Desperately Needed: In the past couple of years many faithful Bereavement Ministry (funeral dinner) volunteers have either passed away or moved. All the volunteers past and present have been wonderfully generous in donating their time and efforts providing salads and desserts for funeral receptions. The list of volunteers is much smaller than in the past, and they are now tasked with doing much more to provide for the funeral receptions. In order for the Holy Trinity Parish Family to continue offering this service to let bereaved families know we care, we need your help. Please seriously consider becoming a volunteer with this much needed and worthwhile ministry.

INFERTILITY support group

SAT 19 JULY

9:30 AM

Join us for a Woman's Nature Retreat on Saturday, July 19! Spots are limited, so please email us to RSVP and confirm the location. Bearing the cross of infertility is not only emotionally, physically, and spiritually draining, but it can also feel very isolating. Please join as a group of Catholic women gather to support one another in their experiences through infertility and figure out ways to be fruitful in other areas of their lives.

ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (OCIA)

Do you want to understand the Catholic Church better?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation?

Our OCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church's beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church, their foundation in Scripture and Tradition, the truth and beauty of the Church, and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church and to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our OCIA process to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

Update Membership Information

If you have moved, changed your phone number, name or email address, have a new baby in the family or a child who is no longer living at home, please let us know so we may update your registration. Please call the church office at 633-2132 or email htparishoffice@holytrinitycos.org. Thank you for your help!!

New Parishioners

Not a parishioner of Holy Trinity? There are many reasons to become a registered member: religious education classes, opportunities for Christian service in the community, letters of recommendation to serve as godparents and sponsors for newcomers to the faith, pre-printed tithing envelopes (if desired), an annual report of your charitable offerings and a subscription to the Colorado Catholic Herald. Registration forms are available in the foyers or online at www.holytrinitycos.org.

My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You!

I beg pardon for those who do not believe, nor adore, nor hope, nor love You.

Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly. I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifference by which He is offended, through the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of sinners.

Amen.

The Parable of the Sower

In the parable of the sower (Mt. 13:1-9), Jesus tells us about the way he gives out his gifts, particularly the gift of the Word of God. Jesus might say, "I know that in you there are footpaths and some rocky ground, and some thorns. But I also know that there is some good soil. And where I sow, I sow lavishly."

The seed of the Word of God falls upon me, and when it finds good soil, it grows and develops into God's Kingdom - a kingdom of peace, justice, truth, and love. A kingdom where all people and all creation come together.

I need to make sure I am not letting the Word of God bounce off my life, like seed hitting a sidewalk ... or by taking it superficially as I might scan a newspaper article ... or letting other concerns in my life choke it out, as happens when I try to do two things at once.

Lord, let me take in your Word and let it work its wonders within me.
