Communion to the Homebound

Do you know someone in our parish who is temporarily or permanently homebound or in a nursing home and would like to receive communion weekly? Please call the office to schedule a homebound visit or to schedule a nursing home visit. If you are a mandated EMHC or would like to become one and would like to volunteer for this ministry, please contact the parish office.

Leave a Legacy to Holy Trinity

Catholic legacy gifts are an essential part of the wishes of parishioners to provide for their parish, a specific ministry, or the diocese at the time of their death. This can occur through direct giving by way of a will or trust, through a beneficiary gift from a retirement or life insurance policy, or via an endowment through the Catholic Foundation of the Diocese of Colorado Springs to name a few examples. These generous gifts help continue the great work and missions within the Diocese of Colorado Springs.

Deacon Marc Wood is the Planned Giving and Legacy Officer for our Diocese. mwood@diocs.org

FINDING HOPE IN GOD'S PROVIDENCE AND THE SHROUD OF TURIN

In Foretold: Finding Hope in God's Providence, Dr. Sean Innerst weaves together twelve pivotal Old and New Testament stories, showing how what was promised in the first part of our biblical history came to pass through Jesus, His apostles, and the Church. As he says, we can trust that the Divine Providence, so evident in Scripture, is also working in our lives today.

As we near the end of Lent, Connie Pratt will lead us in a study of the Shroud of Turin – the mysterious and miraculous linen relic many believe is Christ's burial and resurrection cloth. After detailing problems with the Carbon-14 dating which supposedly disproved the Shroud's authenticity, we will explore compelling evidence from history, tradition, iconography, textile study, metallurgy, botany...and the Bible itself.

EPIC: A JOURNEY THROUG CHURCH HISTORY

Steve Weidenkopf begins with a summary of the Protestant Revolt, highlights people like Queen Mary ('Bloody' Mary) and Queen Elizabeth ('Good' Queen Bess), and describes the consequences of that Revolt. He then explores the Church's response, the Catholic Reformation. In the final class, he discusses the secular roots of reason and the exclusion of God.

FUNERAL: PLANNING-THE FINAL JOURNEY HOME

Connie Pratt will address crucial issues (advanced directives, medical powers of attorney) and dangerous pressures we may face when we are most vulnerable.

Deacon Pete McCann will then focus on funeral prep: selecting funeral homes, cemetery/columbarium sites. He'll make suggestions for telling loved ones when to call a priest and making clear the Catholic Funeral Liturgy we want. He'll also explain Anointing of the Sick, Last Rites, and Apostolic Blessing.

Vocations Prayer Calendar

Please pray for our Diocesan Bishops, Priests, Deacons & Seminarians . This week's schedule is:

- Mar 29: Joel Flinn, Mt. St. Mary's Seminary
- Mar 30: James McCann, Mt. St. Mary's Seminary
- Mar 31: Aaron Doyle, St. Gregory the Great Seminary
- Apr 01: Permanent Deacons in the Diocese
- Apr 02: Kevin Ward, Mt. St. Mary's Seminary
- Apr 03: Father Johnn Stearns
- Apr 04: Joshua Wojcik, Mt. St. Mary's Seminary

Eternal Father, we lift up these priests, deacons, and seminarians of our Diocese. Sanctify them, protect and guide them, and mold them into the likeness and holiness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Cookbook

The Holy Trinity parish cookbook, "Trinity Treasures," . The cookbook is quite a bargain (400 recipes in an attractive 3-ring notebook with section dividers) for only $10. Books can be purchased anytime from the office and make great gifts.

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

God so loves us that He sends His Son to die for us. God so wants to have a personal relationship with us, that He shares Jesus with us. When we experience pain and suffering, though, we wonder how this can be God's plan for us. Where is God in illness, violence, betrayal, economic hardship, natural disaster, and cruelty? Why does God, who desires intimacy with us, seem so far away? And where is God in Christ's passion?

We may feel like God is far away, but He isn't. God reminds us: "When you call me, and come and pray to me, I will listen to you" (Jeremiah 29:12). Relying on God during difficult times draws us closer to Him. And if, during times of trial, we open ourselves up to God, we can be instruments of His love and grace, just as Christ was to those witnessing his passion.

As we enter this holiest time of the liturgical year, please consider ways you can pick up the cross and follow Jesus into greater intimacy with God. Please pray for the continued success of the Diocesan Ministry Appeal, and please consider supporting the appeal to help lighten the crosses others are bearing.

Sts. More & Fisher

For April our normal first Thursday meeting falls within Holy Week. Therefore, we won't meet for April, and we encourage you to attend the Holy Thursday Mass, which at Holy Trinity will begin at 6 pm. We will meet again in May.

Almsgiving for Lent

Lizzie Endures with a Mother's Love

Water for Life

In rural Malawi, Lizzie worries that the water she collects from a murky stream might make her children violently ill. Still, she wakes up before dawn to fill her bucket, a task she will repeat six more times that day. All the while, Lizzie wishes she was resting with her children or helping her husband on their small family farm. But her family needs water to survive — even though it often makes them sick. Your Lenten alms will help Church missions bring clean water — and good health — to villages in Africa.

Flyers containing all the information you need in order to donate are located on the tables in the foyers. If you have saved coins for Water for Life, please bring them to Mass in two weeks, April 11-12 (Divine Mercy Sunday). If you have any questions, please contact the Office, Susan Pavlica, or Jane Biondi. Thank you for participating in this life-affirming outreach.

Happy Easter

Dear Parishioners,

The Lord is truly risen, alleluia. To him be glory and power for all the ages of eternity, alleluia, alleluia. (Luke 24.34; cf Revelation 1:6).

This is the truth of Easter. This is the truth that we celebrate. This is the truth that we give witness to. This is the truth of Easter. Our Lord Jesus Christ who died on the Cross has risen and is now alive. He rose from the dead and opened for us eternal life with God. In the Gospel, the message of the Angel to the women who went to see the tomb is encouraging: “Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, ‘He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.’” (Mt. 28.5-7)

Like Mary Magdalene and the other Mary, this good news should be a cause of great joy for us! This is the truth that we celebrate. This is the truth that we give witness to in our daily lives. We need to tell the world around us, Jesus is risen and he is with us. We need to show the world that we are witnesses to this truth. We are his disciples. We need to be faithful to Jesus who appears to the disciples and assures them: “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of age.” (Mt. 28.18-20)

A witness is someone who testifies to the truth. It is our responsibility as followers of Jesus to give witness to his truth with the way we live our respective lives. May we show to the world around us that we are people who believe and give witness to the resurrection of Jesus. My sincere appreciation to every one of you for making our Holy Week and Easter celebrations prayerful and beautiful.

A Blessed Easter and Easter Season!

With my Easter prayers and blessings,

F. David

May the Lord lift up your heart, at Easter and always.
 May the miracle of Easter bring you perfect peace,
 renewal and grace. .

Celebrate Easter this year by honoring your family and friends in a special way:

Would you like to let someone know how much they are appreciated?

Would you like to honor a deceased friend or relative?

Please make a monetary donation to our Easter Flower Fund in memory of a deceased loved one or in honor of someone who is living. Your monetary gift will enable the parish to purchase flowers to enhance the liturgical environment for our Easter celebration! Requested donation is $20.

Please return the tag below to the parish office with your donation or drop in the offertory in an envelope marked "Easter Flowers". The spring plants will greatly enhance the environment in the church throughout the Easter season. Thank you!
