Leave a Legacy to Holy Trinity

Catholic legacy gifts are an essential part of the wishes of parishioners to provide for their parish, a specific ministry, or the diocese at the time of their death. This can occur through direct giving by way of a will or trust, through a beneficiary gift from a retirement or life insurance policy, or via an endowment through the Catholic Foundation of the Diocese of Colorado Springs to name a few examples. These generous gifts help continue the great work and missions within the Diocese of Colorado Springs.

Deacon Marc Wood is the Planned Giving and Legacy Officer for our Diocese. mwood@diocs.org

Adult Catholic Studies

On March 23rd, Mathew Leonard starts with Rudolf Hoss, the Auschwitz commandant who recognized the enormity of his crimes just before his execution and begged for a priest.

Reminding us we are all sinners, Matthew comments on the beauty of Reconciliation which allows even someone like Hoss to find peace.

Matthew discusses similarities and differences between the practice and effects of confession in the OT and in the NT. He also describes the Prodigal Son who disrespects his dad, abandons his family, wastes his inheritance, but eventually repents and returns.

Matthew warns us not to harshly judge that wayward son, since we sinners also walk away from our Father's house and waste His gifts. But in Confession, our Abba stretches out His arms, embraces us, and restores us to His family.

On March 30th, Matthew begins with Fr. Emil Kapun, an Army chaplain who was captured and died in a Korean concentration camp. Father continually offered spiritual healing by hearing soldiers' confessions and anointing them as they died.

Resuming his focus of Reconciliation, Matthew says we must detest our sin, confess it, resolve not to sin again, and do our penance. He also explains the conditions for mortal sin: full knowledge about and deliberate consent to a serious sin which kills our communion with God.

Matthew next discusses Anointing which, like Jesus' miracles, offers internal healing and, sometimes, physical healing too. He describes redemptive suffering, which, allows us to unite our afflictions to Christ's, for the sake of His Church.

Lenten Almsgiving

Almsgiving for Lent

Water for Life

Pray. Fast. Share a Glass

This Lent, Cross Catholic Outreach and the Church in Africa invite our parish to pray, fast, and share a glass of safe, abundant water. Our almsgiving can help give families clean and abundant water – for life.

The donations we collect will bring clean, safe water systems to remote villages in sub-Saharan Africa, by helping them drill community wells. Funds raised will also support health and spiritual initiatives, building medical facilities and providing medical supplies as well as providing Bibles and catechism books.

Holy Trinity is supporting “Water for Life” for our almsgiving this year. This outreach enables our parish to live the Lenten pillars of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, and to change lives. Remittance letters and envelopes are available in the foyers, as are boxes you can fold and use if you prefer to save your change during Lent.

You can research Cross Catholic Outreach at <https://crosscatholic.org/give-hope/>. 94.37% of all donations go to program services.

Catholic FYI

Any reproductive technology, such as IVF, that fails to respect the dignity of the baby being conceived — by threatening the child's right to life, cryopreserving the child, or exposing the embryonic human being to further objectification via research — tyrannically deprives the newly conceived human being of his or her just right to be conceived, gestated, born into, and raised within the marital love of his or her parents. NaPro's infertility protocols embody the small “c” catholic truths that the Church's teaching on infertility treatments underscores:

- (1) They respect the inviolable integrity and right to life of a newly developing baby.
 - (2) They acknowledge the truth that parents ought to view their baby as a gift, not a right.
 - (3) They recognize the child's right to be conceived, gestated, born into, and raised within a heterosexual, until-death-do-we-part marriage.
 - (4) They assist, not replace, the marital act of unitive love.
 - (5) They promote the unitive love meaning of the marital act of sex that's not only inextricably linked to, but that alone makes sense of, the mystery of sexuality and human procreation.
- In summary, NaPro's infertility protocols provide infertile couples the medical-moral solution that IVF procedures do not.

The cumulative pregnancy rate for 1,054 infertile women who were treated at the Saint Paul VI Institute clinic with NaPro for the full spectrum of infertility-causing diseases demonstrates that over 60% became pregnant within 24 months, and nearly 70% of them within 36 months.

Year of Hope

The Year of Hope web page is now live on the diocesan website at <https://www.diocs.org/About/Year-of-Hope>. There you'll find Bishop Golka's pastoral letter, "Christ Our Hope," as well as information on the Jubilee Indulgence, diocesan pilgrimage sites, and other resources

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

We all need what Jesus gives – grace, truth, loving and firm accountability, above all, forgiveness. To receive all these gifts, we have to take the first step and repent honestly. We need to acknowledge where, to paraphrase the Penitential Act, in our thoughts and words, in what we have done and what we have failed to do, we have sinned. Too often, it's easier to focus on the sins of others. Concentrating on our co-worker lies, our neighbor's laziness, or our spouse's impatience keeps our own failings in the background. Jesus tells us, repeatedly, to repent. None of us, no matter how good we are or how hard we try to conquer our sins, is beyond the need for Christ's redemption. Without it, He warns, we "will all perish as" the Galileans or the people crushed by the tower at Siloam. Lent is the season of repentance, of prayer and fasting, and almsgiving. Please pray for the success of the Diocesan Ministry Appeal, and if you are able, please consider making a contribution to the appeal as a form of almsgiving this Lent.
