REFRESH YOUR FAITH!!!

On March 3rd, we will begin our two-part series on Prayer and Devotions. We will discuss the different types and expressions of prayer and address the difficulties we often encounter when we try to pray. We'll contrast Christian prayer with the Eastern meditation which is so popular in secular culture. And with the help of Dr. Scott Hahn, we will closely study the Our Father, the 'family prayer' which was given us by Jesus Himself.

On March 10th, we will conclude with a focus on some of the aids the Church gives for our journey to Heaven. We will look at Lectio Divina and the Liturgy of the Hours; Novenas and Special Devotions; rosaries and litanies; and various spiritualities. We will also explore frequently-misunderstood sacramentals like holy water, blessed salt, medals, and the Stations of the Cross.

Our upcoming Refresh Your Faith classes are:

- Mar 3 Prayer and Devotions 1
- Mar 10 Prayer and Devotions 2
- Mar 17 Human Life Issues
- Mar 24 Sexual Morality and Fertility Research
- Mar 31 No Class – Easter

Refresh Your Faith meets in the Hope House on Sunday mornings at 11:30.

Prayer for Imploring Holy Popes

Kyrie Eleison! Christe Eleison! Kyrie Eleison! Lord Jesus Christ, You are the Good Shepherd! With Your almighty hand You guide Your pilgrim Church through the storms of each age.

Adorn the Holy See with holy popes who neither fear the powerful of this world nor compromise with the spirit of the age, but preserve, strengthen, and defend the Catholic Faith unto the shedding of their blood, and observe, protect, and hand on the venerable liturgy of the Roman Church.

O Lord, return to us through holy popes who, inflamed with the zeal of the Apostles, proclaim to the whole world: “Salvation is found in no other than in Jesus Christ. For there is no other Name under heaven given to men by which they should be saved.” (See Acts 4:10-12)

Through an era of holy popes, may the Holy See – which is home to all who promote the Catholic and Apostolic Faith – always shine as the cathedra of truth for the whole world. Hear us, O Lord, and through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Mother of the Church, grant us holy popes, grant us many holy popes! Have mercy on us and hear us!

Amen

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

In today's Gospel, zeal for His Father's house consumes Jesus. He single-handedly drives out those who are making the Temple into a marketplace. The Jews asked, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" (John 2:18)

Jesus' reply is that He is God. He is going to rise from the dead! He holds the power over life, death, and all things. His zeal for His Father's house is one of many manifestations of who God is to the world. (God, apparently, likes a clean house!)

Zeal consumes Jesus for our parish. We are God's house. Each of us is a Temple of his Holy Spirit. The way we handle money matters to God. Our parish needs your help for our Diocesan Ministry Appeal to succeed. Help us use the gifts He gives to beautify His house, adorning it with prayer and good works, and improve the lives of those entrusted to us. Jesus is zealous for us all to have the abundant life He offers—not a life suffocated by this world. Join us in living a better life—His life.

The St. Patrick's Day Parade Mass is being said to honor the memory of Mr. Jay Cimino.

His lifelong commitment to the needs of Colorado Springs and to his home town of Trinidad give testimony to the goodness of his heart. So many have been touched by his generosity. His involvement in the Parade and his personnel friendship compel us to remember Jay and his family.

Mass is at 9:30 am at St. Mary's Cathedral on March 16th. Everyone is invited to celebrate with us! Bishop Golka will be celebrating the Mass.

Parade starts at noon, downtown. Parking is free in the Cathedral lot.

Adult Catholic Studies

On March 3rd, we will conclude our study of The Revelation to John. Two visions reveal the final phase of God's plan. One vision shows how God consummates history and summarizes the New Creation. The other vision contrasts Babylon and its fall with the Lamb's Bride, the new Jerusalem. God's mercy allows for repentance and cleansing, but damnation is eternal and irreversible.

On March 10th, we will start our series, Making Sense of Suffering. We will answer the atheist argument that an all-powerful, all-loving God would not let us suffer by discussing the true meanings of key terms. We will study Satan's unsatisfactory 'shortcuts' (fairy-tale god, materialistic god, blob god, etc.) And we will look at great 'divine clues' and see how they all converge.

Our upcoming Adult Catholic Studies classes are:

- Mar 3 The New Heaven, New Earth, New Jerusalem; The River of the Water of Life; Epilogue and Benediction
- Mar 10 Making Sense of Suffering: Helpful Clues
- Mar 17 Making Sense of Suffering: Good Guides
- Mar 24 Presence: God Is With Us

Holy Trinity Adult Catholic Studies meets Sundays at 10 am in the Hope House.

Catholic FYI

The Value of Suffering

God often permits trials for our sanctification, as Paul himself learned when he prayed that God would remove from him an angel of Satan who was afflicting him:

“And to keep me from being too elated by the abundance of revelations, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger [Greek: angelos] of Satan, to harass me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I besought the Lord about this, that it should leave me; but he said to me, ‘My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.’” (2 Cor. 12:7-9).

God also uses our suffering to help others. If Paul had not become ill while on his first missionary journey and been forced to stop traveling, he would not have preached to the Galatians, for he tells them, “You know it was because of a bodily ailment that I preached the gospel to you at first” (Gal. 4:13). God used Paul’s illness to bring salvation to the Galatians and to bring us a work of Scripture, through which we are still receiving benefits from God.

This is just one example of how God used suffering to bring about good. Therefore, if we suffer, we should look upon it as an opportunity for good, such as by offering up our sufferings for our own sanctification and for our departed brothers and sisters in Christ.

Eucharistic Evangelization Prayer

May my heart ever hunger for Thee and be nourished by Thee, whose sight the angels desire; may my innermost soul be filled by the sweetness of thy savor and ever thirst for Thee, the fount of life, the fount of wisdom and knowledge, the fount of eternal life, the torrent of joy, the plentitude of the house of God.
