Leave a Legacy to Holy Trinity

Catholic legacy gifts are an essential part of the wishes of parishioners to provide for their parish, a specific ministry, or the diocese at the time of their death. This can occur through direct giving by way of a will or trust, through a beneficiary gift from a retirement or life insurance policy, or via an endowment through the Catholic Foundation of the Diocese of Colorado Springs to name a few examples. These generous gifts help continue the great work and missions within the Diocese of Colorado Springs.

Deacon Marc Wood is the Planned Giving and Legacy Officer for our Diocese. mwood@diocs.org

Catholic FYI

Anima Christi (Soul of Christ)

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, embolden me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide me.
Never permit me to be parted from you.
From the evil Enemy defend me.
At the hour of my death call me
and bid me come to you,
that with your Saints I may praise you for age upon age.
Amen.

This beautiful prayer of unknown authorship was composed in the first half of the 14th century. A favorite of St. Ignatius Loyola, it enjoyed renewed prominence through his 16th century "Spiritual Exercises".

Sometimes attributed to Pope John XXII (though disputed), it seems he did enrich it with indulgences in 1330. Apparently in 1854 Pope Pius IX revoked all previous indulgences and granted instead:

- An indulgence of three hundred days every time it is recited, with at least contrite heart and devotion;
- An indulgence of seven years, once a day, to priests who shall say it after saying Mass, and to the faithful, after receiving holy communion.

The Anima Christi reminds us that Our Lord desires to radically change our lives through the Holy Eucharist. But how do we really embrace what He desires to give us? How do we fulfill the mission our Lord Jesus Christ imparted to us? This prayer can be said before and especially after receiving communion.

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

Goodbyes are a natural part of life. We say goodbye to our parents and the family we grew up with when we marry and begin families of our own. We say goodbye to our children when we drop them off at college. We say goodbye to family, friends, and coworkers when we are transferred to our company's office in another state. And we say the ultimate goodbye when someone we love dies.

Hopefully, we are prepared for these goodbyes. Our parents modeled the love and sacrifice inherent in marriage and child rearing. We have equipped our children with the skills necessary to enter adulthood. We have touched the lives of those around us so that physical distance doesn't end our relationships. And we have loved fully so that death gives us peace instead of regret.

So, too, does Jesus prepare his beloved disciples for the eventual end of his earthly existence. He has spent his entire ministry teaching them that he is from the Father, and that all he says originates with the Father. Now that the disciples believe, they are ready to continue Christ's mission in his absence. By supporting the Diocesan Ministry Appeal we help continue Christ's mission in the world—just as the disciples did—ensuring His love and truth reach those in need.

Music Ministry Appreciation!

On behalf of Father David and the Holy Trinity Parish, I wish to thank deeply the many people who have given of their time, talent, and treasure to the glory of God in our music ministry this past season. With weekly rehearsals, prayer and faith formation, these people have given hundreds of hours to our worship out of love and dedication to the Lord and his beloved church. It has been my honor and privilege to sever with them, and I look forward to even greater riches in the future.
