Leave a Legacy to Holy Trinity

Catholic legacy gifts are an essential part of the wishes of parishioners to provide for their parish, a specific ministry, or the diocese at the time of their death. This can occur through direct giving by way of a will or trust, through a beneficiary gift from a retirement or life insurance policy, or via an endowment through the Catholic Foundation of the Diocese of Colorado Springs to name a few examples. These generous gifts help continue the great work and missions within the Diocese of Colorado Springs.

Deacon Marc Wood is the Planned Giving and Legacy Officer for our Diocese. mwood@diocs.org

Discernment Retreat

The Diocese of Colorado Springs will host the fourth annual Discernment Retreat for single men between the ages of 18 - 40. The retreat is scheduled for July 18, 2026, at the St. John Henry Newman Center located at 4785 Stanton Road, Colorado Springs.

Registration begins at 12:15 PM. The retreat will start at 12:30 PM.

Mr. Lehnertz reflected on last year's retreat: "Our retreats are paying huge Spiritual dividends in the form of seminarians. We're pleased that we receive very positive feedback from the discerners and several of them are now seminarians. Please keep all of the discerners and our seminarians in your prayers."

Lehnertz added, "we are changing the format slightly this year. We'll continue with the Seminarian's Panel because it's a real hit with the discerners. The primary change will be a Parent's Seminar consisting of parents of priests or seminarians meeting with parents of the discerners. Parents of the discerners are invited to attend the break out session and share their questions, concerns or any other issues with parents of priests or seminarians."

Another change is the focus of the retreat itself. In previous years we have received questions about priests who belong to a religious order such as the Franciscans. Our retreats are focused on Diocesan Priests; these are priests who, upon ordination, will serve at one of the parishes in the Diocese of Colorado Springs. As in previous years, the retreat will culminate with Adoration and the Rosary.

Please RSVP to Michael Lehnertz, by July 16, 2026. His email address is: mlehnertz@icloud.com.

Mr. Lehnertz has been a parishioner at Our Lady of the Pines in Black Forest for 22 years. He serves as the Director of OLP's Vocations Ministry. His son is a priest in the diocese of Orlando, FL.

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

Parables are an important part of Jesus' ministry. He uses these stories to convey God's love and mercy, to describe the Heavenly Kingdom, to teach us how we are to live lives of service and compassion. In today's Gospel, however, Jesus sets aside the parable format and states outright, "I am the way, the truth, and the life." He is the righteous path—the way—the one that leads us to everlasting life. He is wisdom—the truth; his words provide the light by which we live our lives. He is salvation—life; by his cross and resurrection he has wiped away our sins. This bold proclamation is comforting, especially in uncertain times. Jesus reminds us not to let our hearts be troubled because our future is already secure in his love. And as his followers, we are called to walk his way, speak his truth, and bring his life into the world—especially to those who are searching for meaning and hope.

The Diocesan Ministry Appeal helps our Church do just that—providing vital support to ministries that guide, teach, and care for others in Christ's name. Please consider a gift today to help others discover the Way, the Truth,

PRAYER FOR A NEW BISHOP

Almighty and ever-living God, in your faithfulness, grant to the Diocese of Colorado Springs a shepherd whose watchful care and kindly zeal will continue the good work of his predecessors.

In your love for us, give us a shepherd who will lead us in being Christ's heart of mercy, voice of hope, and hands of justice. Let him who is chosen to be our shepherd strive to live more and more each day with holiness of life and heroic virtue so that he will lead your holy people in all truth.

Prepare him, we humbly pray, to fill our minds and hearts with the truth of the Gospel, the power of the sacraments, and the desire to actively work to build up your holy Church.

Loving God, grant our Holy Father Pope Leo wisdom in discernment as he chooses a new bishop for this local Church. By your divine providence, grant us a shepherd after the heart of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, whose benevolent care and zealotness will strengthen the people of God.

We ask this through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, patroness of the Diocese of Colorado Springs, and in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
