Leave a Legacy to Holy Trinity

Catholic legacy gifts are an essential part of the wishes of parishioners to provide for their parish, a specific ministry, or the diocese at the time of their death. This can occur through direct giving by way of a will or trust, through a beneficiary gift from a retirement or life insurance policy, or via an endowment through the Catholic Foundation of the Diocese of Colorado Springs to name a few examples. These generous gifts help continue the great work and missions within the Diocese of Colorado Springs.

Deacon Marc Wood is the Planned Giving and Legacy Officer for our Diocese. mwood@diocs.org

Book Discussion

"America on Trial" Roundtable

As we approach the 250th anniversary of the United States' founding, there are many debates regarding the character of that founding. Was it Enlightenment derived? Christian? Perhaps even Catholic? A Socratic-oriented discussion on this topic will be held after the 11 am Mass at Holy Trinity on June 28th in the cafeteria. We will employ the book "America on Trial" by Robert R. Reilly as a guide/background to the discussion. Read the book (it is available through new and used bookstores, at the library, and possibly someone you know), and discuss it with others you find are interested, and then come ready for the discussion on June 28th.

Questions? Call (719)548-9164.

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

Fear is a great inhibitor. The disciples are hiding behind locked doors, paralyzed by fear and uncertainty. Jesus enters this fear. Twice He says, "Peace be with you," grounding his greeting in calm assurance. He then gives them a charge: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." Jesus doesn't let his disciples stay behind locked doors. He calls them out into the world, to share the Good News, to forgive, to serve. He breathes on them the Holy Spirit, equipping them with the power and courage to fulfill their mission. The Church is thus born from belief coupled with action.

This same Spirit is given to us. We, too, are called to be Christ's presence in our homes, workplaces, and communities. That mission may be daunting, especially in a world that often resists faith, but we do not go alone. Jesus is with us. His Spirit strengthens us. And we walk together as a Church. One way we answer this call is by supporting the Diocesan Ministry Appeal, which sustains the Church's mission through ministries of education, service, and outreach. Your gift helps send the Church into the world, just as Christ sent his first disciples.

10 WAYS

EVERY CATHOLIC CAN PREPARE THEIR HEART

for Pentecost

SPEND MORE TIME IN PRAYER

Pentecost began with the disciples gathered in prayer. Before the Holy Spirit came upon them, they waited, prayed, and opened their hearts to God.

GO TO CONFESSION

A clean heart receives grace more deeply. Pentecost is not just about celebration; it is about renewal. Confession helps remove the spiritual weight that blocks us from God.

READ THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

The story of Pentecost is found in Acts chapter 2. Reading it slowly helps us understand how the Holy Spirit transformed fearful disciples into bold witnesses of Christ.

PRAY THE PENTECOST NOVENA

The first novena in Church history was prayed before Pentecost. Joining the Church in this prayer spiritually prepares your heart to receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

ASK FOR THE GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord are gifts every Catholic needs. Do not assume you already have them fully. Ask sincerely.

LET GO OF BITTERNESS AND FORGIVE OTHERS

The Holy Spirit brings peace, not hatred. Holding grudges hardens the heart. Pentecost is a beautiful time to forgive people who hurt you and allow God to heal your heart.

SPEND TIME BEFORE THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Silence before Jesus opens the soul. Even a few quiet moments in adoration can help you become more aware of God's presence and guidance.

FAST OR MAKE SMALL SACRIFICES

Spiritual discipline helps us grow in self-control and dependence on God. A small fast offered with love can prepare the heart to receive spiritual strength.

ATTEND MASS WITH INTENTION

Do not attend Pentecost Mass casually. Come expecting something from God. Listen carefully to the readings and open your heart during the prayers and hymns.

10

ASK THE HOLY SPIRIT TO CHANGE YOU

Pentecost is not only about remembering an event from the past. It is about allowing the Holy Spirit to transform your life today. Pray for courage, holiness, wisdom, and a deeper love for God.
