Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Do you want to understand the Catholic Church better?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you will consider joining Holy Trinity's Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church's beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church, their foundation in Scripture and Tradition, the truth and beauty of the Church, and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church and to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

RCIA Inquiry classes typically begin in August.

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE...
AND ETERNITY TO GAIN!

Statues of Mary & Jesus

The 23k gold leaf will never tarnish, so should be shiny forever. No need to clean the statues, just a light swiffer dusting yearly.

Mary is depicted on the moon and reflects the light of her Son. She holds a lily which is the sign of purity. Mary is veiled as a symbol of humility, modesty and respect.

Jesus is depicted with His pierced sacred heart surrounded with golden rays of light. He shows the wounds of crucifixion in His hands. He is standing on a cloud.

The colors are more bold, to match the stained glass coloring of the interior of Holy Trinity.

Many, many thanks to Mary McLean for her beautiful work on the statues. We are very blessed!

NO FOOD down Drains, PLEASE!!

Reminder for all who use the cafeteria/kitchen,
please scrape ALL food items into the trash cans.
ANY food in the drains will cause back ups.

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

Today's Gospel is the end of Mark's Gospel account. Mark says that when the disciples went out to preach the Gospel, "the Lord... confirmed the word through accompanying signs" (Mark 16:20).

How does the Lord usually confirm His word? One of the most attractive signs of the Gospel is joy. The fruits of the Spirit, such as joy, kindness, and gentleness, are usually far more alluring to the seeker of

"something more to life" than a dramatic miracle. (Although those are great!)

In a similar way, our parish attracts through joy. It is our joy that draws others to this altar. Together, our prayers are sweet to God, just like the smell of incense. Thank you in advance for bringing that joy to our Annual Appeal as well! Your joyful offerings will bring many to God.

Chesterton Book Study

In his book "The Everlasting Man," G. K. Chesterton begins by stating "that those who say that Christ stands side by side with similar myths, and His religion side by side with similar religions, are only repeating a very stale formula contradicted by a very striking fact."

Join us as we discover Chesterton's answer to this thesis in a weekly book study beginning Sunday May 19 at noon during the coffee and doughnuts gathering after Mass. We will start with the introduction and first chapter.

Senior/Family Dinner

Not to oppose error is to approve it, and not to defend the truth is to suppress it" - Pope St. Felix III

Catholic FYI

Just as contraception is the deliberate exclusion from the sexual act of its procreative end, so in-vitro fertilization is the deliberate exclusion of the unitive dimension of spousal love from the conception of a human being. That is, the sexual act is intended by God both to nurture the love of a husband and wife, as well as open them to His creative act in the generation of human life. When these dual ends of sexual relations are fractured - when the sexual act blocks its procreative meaning through contraception, or when procreation is severed from the spousal union of love, as in in-vitro fertilization and artificial insemination - it constitutes a grave violation of the moral law. The act is rendered even more serious when, as is often the case, "surplus" embryos must be aborted to make way for the embryo that is chosen for survival. The gravity of the act is exacerbated still further when persons other than spouses donate the sperm or the ovum (surrogate uterus) since such actions violate a child's right to a father and mother, known to him or her and bound to each other in marriage.
