Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Do you want to better understand the Catholic Church?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes... and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not yet received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you'll consider the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church's beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church at Easter, when we celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process, to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

Adult Catholic Studies

On May 21st, we'll meet Basil who, thanks to his 'Ivy League' education, became the doctrinal and theological expert for Bishop Eusebius and later succeeded him. We'll learn about the "new city" (hospital, soup kitchen, poor house, trade school, hospice) he set up to help the needy.

We'll find that John Chrysostom didn't just teach a theology on marriage but also condemned the sins which make us unworthy of the life flowing from that sacrament.

We'll hear about Nero, the murderous deviant who burned Rome but said the Christians caused it by their 'hate speech.' We'll learn about the martyrdom which followed...and see how these saintly people drew strength from, and identified with, the Eucharist as sacrifice.

On May 28th, we present our last class before summer, an especially-beautiful episode, "Living the Mysteries." We begin with St. Justin, who first tried to find peace in secular philosophies. But one day, an old man on the beach told him to seek wisdom in the Hebrew prophets. Thanks to those writings and brave Christian witnesses, he converted...and was eventually martyred himself. We learn Christians likened Jesus' total gift of self in the Eucharist to man's total gift of self in martyrdom, considering them, in a way, as private and public liturgies.

As Christianity spread, 'red' martyrdom decreased. But as St. Jerome said, "there is always martyrdom," the need to offer ourselves up to God.

In the Mass, there is an anamnesis, a 'making present,' of the crucifixion. And we, as Christ's brothers and sisters, are called to accept His Cross and our own quiet martyrdom. We are to place our lives on the altar.

If we do so, we become "the Mass in motion." After all, by "living they mysteries" as the martyrs did, we are a kind of sacrament, a visible sign of who we are in Christ!

May 14 No Class – Mothers' Day
May 21 Fathers & Martyrs
May 28 Living the Mysteries

Holy Trinity Adult Catholic Studies meets Sunday mornings at 10AM in the Hope House.

Join over 2,000 others on Saturday, June 3rd as we Walk for Life and raise funds for the ministry of Life Network! The 2-mile Walk and 5K Fun Run is a family friendly event for people of all ages, and is a great way to get your kids involved with supporting and protecting the sanctity of life!

After Walk - Vendor Fair and Kid's Zone

The goal of the Walk for Life is to raise funds for the ministry of Life Network, educate community members about Life Network and its outreaches and make a strong life-affirming statement to our community.

We will be celebrating life with thousands of others from the community at Memorial Park, located near downtown Colorado Springs. The Walk for Life will have many family friendly activities - we hope you'll bring your family and friends and join us! (more information at www.walkforlife.com ).

Whether you walk or run, we ask that you will raise funds for the ministry of Life Network. For every $150 raised, Life Network can provide life-changing services to three women facing unplanned pregnancies. All pledges are a one-time pledge, not a per-mile pledge. This is not an athletic event, choose your own pace for the 2-mile walk or the 5k Fun Run. Receive prizes based on your individual fundraising efforts. ## Catholic FYI

The chapel where St. Joan of Arc prayed is in Wisconsin. Formerly located in Chasse, France it was moved piece by piece to the Americas, resided for a time on Long Island, and now is on the campus of Marquette University in Milwaukee, WI.

The rock slab on which she prayed is still extant and placed behind the altar. Scientific tests confirm that it remains at a cooler temperature than all other stones in the structure. Supernaturally epic.

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

In today's Gospel, Jesus reveals that a wonderful day is approaching. Of it, He says, "On that day you will realize that I am in my Father, and you are in Me and I in you" (John 14:20). It can be easy to miss the magnitude of what He is saying, either because it's strange or because of our familiarity with His words.

He is describing oneness. God is Spirit, inviting us to spiritual oneness with Him. The spiritual world can seem so delicate and perfect that it becomes synonymous with "practically irrelevant." Becoming one with God is possibly the most practical of all things. When Jesus is in you, possibilities are endless: "For God all things are possible" (Matthew 19:26).

And God doesn't stop at spiritual oneness with us. He wants us to be one with each other, too. Our parish is here to facilitate both. Our Diocesan Ministry Appeal needs you to succeed. God is alive in our parish, and we want others to taste and see. Please give to our Annual Appeal so that we can help others experience the satisfying love of Jesus. He waits only for our "yes" to bring His transforming light into the lives of His children here!

Note: If your loved one's name has been on this list for more than two years or has recovered please call the office to remove their name from the prayer list to make room for others in need of prayer. Thank you.

Our call to Stewardship encourages us to share our GIFTS: our special talents and abilities, things that we feel passionate about, things that might be used to describe our personalities, such as being compassionate, hospitable, organized, having patience or wisdom, are all part of our unique giftedness.

We could use your gifts on our Stewardship Committee! We meet every other month on the third Thursday in the Hope House, and we promote stewardship as a way of life in our parish:

We try to publicize stewardship and encourage people to return to God part of the gifts of time, talent, and treasure that He has given us.

We encourage people to donate money in order that Holy Trinity may continue to accomplish our mission, which is to make disciples.

We invite people to return some of their time to God by increasing the time they spend in prayer.

We encourage people to return some of their talent (and time) to God by participating in the ministries we have here at Holy Trinity.

Come check us out! Our next meeting is:
Thursday, May 18 at 5:30 p.m. in the Hope House.

Meetings begin and end in prayer and last no longer than one hour. We would love for you to join us and learn more about what stewardship and our committee are all about!
