Leave a Legacy to Holy Trinity

Catholic legacy gifts are an essential part of the wishes of parishioners to provide for their parish, a specific ministry, or the diocese at the time of their death. This can occur through direct giving by way of a will or trust, through a beneficiary gift from a retirement or life insurance policy, or via an endowment through the Catholic Foundation of the Diocese of Colorado Springs to name a few examples. These generous gifts help continue the great work and missions within the Diocese of Colorado Springs.

Deacon Marc Wood is the Planned Giving and Legacy Officer for our Diocese. mwood@diocs.org

Catholic FYI

St. Leo the Great

The pontificate of Pope Leo I spanned the middle of the fifth century (440-461). It was an era marked by great disturbances in the world and in the Church. One of the most famous events in his papacy occurred in the year 452, when the whole of the Italian peninsula was trembling in the face of invasion by Attila the Hun. Already, large parts of northern Italy had fallen before the invader; the cities of Aquileia, Padua, and Milan were conquered, sacked, and razed to the ground.

Attila, threatening the interior of Italy, camped near Mantua, on the Mincio River; and it is here that he met Leo, the Bishop of Rome. Leo had come as the head of a delegation to persuade Attila to withdraw his forces. According to a later legend, during the negotiations, Attila had a vision of the Apostles St. Peter and St. Paul, carrying drawn swords, and threatening Attila if he dared to attack the city of Rome. The story can be seen portrayed in the Apostolic Palace, in frescoes by Raphael.

Three years later, it fell again to Pope Leo to stand without human aid before a conquering army. Genseric, a Vandal king, appeared at the gates of Rome; and although the great Pope could not persuade him to spare the city, he nonetheless convinced him to spare the Archbasilica of St John Lateran, and the Basilicas of Sts. Peter and Paul. The city was captured, but thousands of innocent people were saved when they took refuge in the Christian edifices.

Peter has spoken through Leo

The life of Leo, however, was not concerned solely with secular affairs, and the pursuit of worldly peace. Within the Church, Pope Leo was dedicated to the preservation of the teachings handed down once for all from the Apostles. His greatest triumph was the Ecumenical Council, promoted by him, which was held in Chalcedon (modern Kadiköy, Turkey). There, the Council Fathers recognized and re-affirmed the truth of the union of two natures – divine and human – in the one Person of Jesus Christ. Leo himself had proclaimed this truth in a letter, originally addressed to Flavian, the Patriarch of Constantinople. When Leo's "Tome" was read at Chalcedon, the Council Fathers cried out "Peter has spoken through Leo!"

Catholic FYI con't

Theologian and pastor

Leo the Great was an ardent supporter and promoter of the Primacy of the See of Peter. In almost 100 sermons and letters that have come down to us, the "Great Pope" shows himself as both a theologian and a pastor: attentive to the importance of communion between the churches, but never forgetting the needs of the faithful. It was his care and concern for ordinary women and men that animated the works of charity he accomplished in an era marked by famine, poverty, injustice, and pagan superstition. In all his actions, he strove to "uphold justice with constancy," and to "offer clemency with love" – all in the name of Jesus, since "without Christ we can do nothing, but with Him, we can do all."

A Pope of firsts

Leo's pontificate was marked by a number of firsts: He was the first Pope named Leo, and the first Pope to be remembered as "the Great" (later, Gregory I and Nicholas I would also be accorded the honor). Leo is also the first Pope whose sermons have come down to us. He is one of only two Popes (the other is Gregory) to be recognized as a Doctor of the Church. When he died in 461, he became the first Pope buried in St. Peter's Basilica. His relics are preserved in the new St. Peter's, near the Altar of the Chair, in a chapel dedicated to the "Madonna of the Column."

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

“Love” is often associated with sentimentality, all roses and poetry, full hearts and butterflies in the stomach. To love, truly and deeply, is hard. It’s sacrificial, not superficial. It’s service, work, and self-denial. As Paul says in 1 Corinthians 13:5, love “does not seek its own interests.” It doesn’t keep score: You did this for me, so I do this for you. It isn’t contingent on how much the other person loves us. After all, Jesus loved Judas despite the latter’s betrayal.

This is how Jesus loves us – freely, completely, no strings attached. And this is how we are called to love others in His name. We are imperfect. So, we won’t be able to love like this. But we can strive to love as Christ does, and in the striving, we can come close some of the time.

There are many ways we can “have love for one another.” When we care for a parent whom illness has reduced to a child-like state. When we pray for those who have injured us in some way. When we forgive our spouses their shortcomings and recommit to our wedding vows even in our disappointment. And by bringing God’s love to those we may never meet through support of the Diocesan Ministry Appeal.

Please pray for...

ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (OCIA)

Do you want to understand the Catholic Church better?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation?

Our OCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church's beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church, their foundation in Scripture and Tradition, the truth and beauty of the Church, and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church and to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our OCIA process to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You!

I beg pardon for those who do not believe, nor adore, nor hope, nor love You.

Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly. I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifference by which He is offended, through the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of sinners.

Amen.
