Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Do you want to understand the Catholic Church better?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you will consider joining Holy Trinity's Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church's beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church, their foundation in Scripture and Tradition, the truth and beauty of the Church, and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church and to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

RCIA Inquiry classes typically begin in August.

AND ETERNITY TO GAIN!

Diocesan Ministry Appeal

Before Pentecost, Jesus pronounced His intention that His Spirit should remain with His apostles, with the power to forgive sins. Today, the Catholic Church, led by the apostles' successors, is the only place where people can find complete reconciliation and peace of heart.

The world is full of people who feel cut off from God, alone, or unforgiveable. The beauty of our Catholic heritage is not an imposing institution with a bunch of suffocating rules. Our heritage is mercy.

In Confession, our priest offers this mercy straight from the heart of Christ, just as Christ poured forth His

Holy Spirit on His apostles at Pentecost. Please support our Diocesan Ministry Appeal, so we can help people encounter God's mercy more deeply. Christ trusts our parish to bring all His children into communion with Him. There is no better path to restoring intimacy with God than the sacrament of Reconciliation: "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them" (John 20:23). Jesus meant it, and the Holy Spirit confirmed it! Please help our parish help more people find the sweetness of God's love through the sacraments.

Chesterton Book Study

In his book, "The Everlasting Man", G. K. Chesterton begins by stating "that those who say that Christ stands side by side with similar myths, and His religion side by side with similar religions, are only repeating a very stale formula contradicted by a very striking fact."

Join us as we discover Chesterton's answer to this thesis in a weekly book study beginning Sunday May 19 at noon during the coffee and doughnuts gathering after Mass. We will start with the introduction and first chapter.

Catholic FYI

Anima Christi (Soul of Christ)

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
 Body of Christ, save me.
 Blood of Christ, embolden me.
 Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
 Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
 O good Jesus, hear me.
 Within your wounds hide me.
 Never permit me to be parted from you.
 From the evil enemy defend me.
 At the hour of my death call me
 and bid me come to you,
 that with your Saints I may praise you
 for age upon age.
 Amen.

This beautiful prayer of unknown authorship was composed in the first half of the 14th century. A favorite of St. Ignatius Loyola, it enjoyed renewed prominence through his 16th century "Spiritual Exercises".

Sometimes attributed to Pope John XXII (though disputed), it seems he did enrich it with indulgences in 1330. Apparently in 1854 Pope Pius IX revoked all previous indulgences and granted instead:

- An indulgence of three hundred days every time it is recited, with at least contrite heart and devotion;
- An indulgence of seven years, once a day, to priests who shall say it after saying Mass, and to the faithful, after receiving holy communion.

The Anima Christi reminds us that Our Lord desires to radically change our lives through the Holy Eucharist. But how do we really embrace what He desires to give us? How do we fulfill the mission our Lord Jesus Christ imparted to us? This prayer can be said before and especially after receiving communion.

How is Stewardship Like Wildflowers?

"Learn from the way the wild flowers grow. They do not work or spin. But I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was clothed like one of them. If God so clothes the grass of the field, which grows today and is thrown into the oven tomorrow, will he not much more provide for you, O you of little faith?"

Matthew 6:28-30

God will provide.

Everything I have comes from God.

And what does God ask of me in return? To trust that God will provide. To trust that God created me to do something as part of God's plan for the world and to trust that God will provide the means for me to do it. To trust that I am called to do something beautiful for God.

Stewardship in Light of the Gospel of Matthew

"Never measure generosity by what you give, but rather by what you have left."
