Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Do you want to better understand the Catholic Church?
Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes... and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not yet received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you'll consider the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church’s beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church at Easter, when we celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process, to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE... AND ETERNITY TO GAIN!

For more information, please contact us at (719) 633-2132, Ext. 0 or rcia@holytrinitycos.org.

Sacraments

Baptisms: Baptism preparation class is required for all parents and godparents, and they must be registered in a Catholic parish and members in good standing. Contact the parish office to schedule an appointment.

Marriage: All engaged couples participate in a Marriage Preparation Program (a policy of the Diocese of Colorado Springs). Contact the parish office AT LEAST ONE YEAR IN ADVANCE of your planned marriage to begin preparation.

Sacrament of the Sick/Emergencies: Dial 633-2132, x1002. Calls are monitored on a regular basis.

Funerals: Please call the parish office before scheduling date and time with a funeral home. The parish office schedules presiders, musicians, and servers in consultation with family members.

New Parishioners

Not a parishioner of Holy Trinity? There are many reasons to become a registered member: religious education classes, opportunities for Christian service in the community, letters of recommendation to serve as godparents and sponsors for newcomers to the faith, pre-printed tithing envelopes (if desired), an annual report of your charitable offerings and a subscription to the Colorado Catholic Herald. Registration forms are available in the foyers or online at www.holytrinitycos.org.

Adult Catholic Studies

Please join our

Holy Trinity Adult Catholic Studies classes

Sunday mornings at 10AM in the Hope House.

On November 20th, we begin our wonderful Advent series, Living Joy. In this first of three sessions, Chris Stefanick talks about gratitude, which doesn’t come naturally to us. As Chris says the brains of our caveman ancestors focused on surviving, not on ‘smelling the roses.’ After describing amazingly grateful people like St. Paul (whom Chris calls the “Navy Seal of the Church”) and Anne Frank, Chris gives three simple rules to develop this habit.

Chris then talks about silence, which counteracts the dangers prevalent in our increasingly noisy world. He says silence creates a space to be receptive to God, leads to reverence, and is a place where dreams grow. He then shares three ways to cultivate silence.

Finally, Chris talks about the need to love ourselves as our Creator loves us. After pointing out that the devil works to make us see and label ourselves in a negative way, Chris says “take the pen out of Satan’s hand and give it back to God.” Chris shares three steps to achieve this.

As we prepare for the beauty of the gift of Christmas, let’s renew our comment to “Living Joy.”

Nov 20 Living Joy: Gratitude, Silence, and Loving Yourself

Nov 27 No Class

Dec 4 Living Joy: Have Fun, Engage Your Body, and Make Friends

Dec 11 Living Joy: Rest, Serve, and Reframe Your Mind

On December 4th, we continue our Advent series, with Chris Stefanick’s focus on “the serious business” of fun, the disposition of the soul which does us great good. After quoting Chesterton, “Angels can fly because they take themselves lightly,” Chris tells us to be silly like the monks called “holy fools” and be willing to ‘waste time’ having fun with those we love.

Chris then focuses on engaging the body. Since God “put stars in the night sky and set galaxies in motion” for us, we should walk into every room ready to bless someone. He quotes Mother Teresa, who said we’ll never know all the good a simple smile will do. And he reminds us that, as St. Ignatius of Loyola said, “bodily exercise, when done properly, is prayer.”

Finally, Chris stresses the importance of making true friends, citing the connectedness of the Giant Sequoias to illustrate his point. He recommends meeting monthly with intimate friends who share what’s going on in their lives, what God is doing, and how they can pray for each other.

Join us to learn much more about these crucial aspects of Living Joy and growing spiritually!

Please see the bulletin boards or contact Phil & Connie at ppratt@holytrinitycos.org for more information.

Trinity Treasures Cookbook

Update: Trinity Treasures

Thanks again to everyone who submitted recipes to the parish cookbook. Through your contributions, we will have a cookbook with 400 recipes!

Some of you have asked how much the cookbook will cost. It will be $10, which is just enough to cover its cost (the purpose is fellowship, not fundraising).

We do NOT expect the cookbook to be available in time for Christmas. We are still typing and editing, and the cookbook company takes quite some time to print and ship the books. We expect to receive them approximately mid-February. You can be sure that we will let you know when they arrive!

Catholic FYI

Bible Verses concerning Society and God

Isaiah 5:20: Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!

Isaiah 45:19: I did not speak in secret, in a land of darkness; I did not say to the offspring of Jacob, 'Seek me in chaos.' I the LORD speak the truth, I declare what is right.

Proverbs 14:12: There is a way which seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death.

Jeremiah 12:16-17: And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, ‘As the LORD lives,’ even as they taught my people to swear by Ba’al, then they shall be built up in the midst of my people. But if any nation will not listen, then I will utterly pluck it up and destroy it, says the LORD."

2 Maccabees 6:14-15: For in the case of the other nations the Lord waits patiently to punish them until they have reached the full measure of their sins; but He does not deal in this way with us, in order that He may not take vengeance on us afterward when our sins have reached their height.

Prayer for the Eucharistic Revival
My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You!
I beg pardon for those who do not believe, nor adore, nor hope, nor love You.
Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly. I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifference by which He is offended. And, through the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of sinners.

Eucharistic Adoration
