Adult Catholic Studies

On October 27th, we resume EPIC: A Journey Through Church History. In this episode, Steve Weidenkopf says seeking the world's riches causes men's hearts to grow cold. While European rulers seek to increase their power, so do some popes.

In 1309, Pope Clement moves the papal residence to Avignon, where it remains for 72 years, until Catherine of Siena persuades the pope to return to Rome. During this time, the Black Death kills almost a third of Europe's population, including thousands of priests and religious who stay to tend to the sick. When Martin V is elected in 1417, Christian unity is restored, but papal authority has been weakened, when it is most needed.

On November 3rd, Steve tells us about proto-Protestants and their heretical 'new gospel;' the heroism and martyrdom of Joan of Arc; the fall of Constantinople to the Turks, the conversion of Christendom's largest church into a mosque, and the final defeat of Islam in the West.

Steve also focuses on the much-misunderstood period of the Inquisition. Since the procedures were meticulously documented and carefully preserved, we know the accused were given a time of grace, a fair trial, and defense attorneys. We also know that, in the 250 years of the Inquisition, far fewer were executed than is typically portrayed, and that the executions were carried out by the state, not by the Church.

Finally, Steve explains that, in Rome, the long line of Renaissance popes from Nicolas V to Leo X ushered in an age of learning and splendor. They also commissioned works by some of history's greatest artists: Michelangelo, Raphael, DaVinci, and others.

Our upcoming Adult Catholic Studies classes:

- Oct 27 EPIC: Weak Leaders & Schism-Part 1
- Nov 3 EPIC: Weak Leaders & Schism-Part 2
- Nov 10 EPIC: Protestors & Defenders-Part 1
- Nov 17 EPIC: Protestors & Defenders-Part 2

Holy Trinity Adult Catholic Studies meets Sundays at 10 am in the Hope House.

SHARE Holiday Food Baskets

As in the past sixteen years, Holy Trinity will once again donate food baskets to needy families in our community, for both Thanksgiving and Christmas. Additionally, we will be offering the Christmas Giving Tree, whereby parishioners can pick a tag and purchase a gift for a child.

The Thanksgiving distribution is set for Saturday, November 23rd and will include: stuffing, sweet potatoes, canned vegetables, cranberry sauce, gravy mix, fresh potatoes, fresh pumpkin pie and a gift card for the purchase of a turkey. We will also collect names for the Christmas Giving Tree during the Thanksgiving distribution.

The Christmas distribution is set for Saturday, December 21st and will include: ham, scalloped potatoes, canned vegetables, pancake mix and syrup, candy canes, hot cocoa mix, Christmas cookies and fresh produce.

All of these donations depend 100% on the generosity of Holy Trinity parishioners. In the vestibules, you will find donation envelopes for this ministry. Simply drop your donation in the offertory anytime before Christmas.

If you know anyone in need of a food basket or Christmas gift, please call the parish office at 719-633-2132. Names submitted last year will be carried over this year, each family on our list will be contacted individually.

Thank you for your support!

Catholic FYI

...We as people in our modern, Western culture have a sense of duty and justice when it comes to other things in our daily lives. Why is it oftentimes so hard for us to break out of our own bad habits and recognize that we also owe God a great deal?

“Justice is the moral virtue that consists in the constant and firm will to give their due to God and neighbor. Justice toward God is called the ‘virtue of religion.’” (CCC1807)

To give someone “their due”, means that we owe something to someone. We are obliged to render what is due to that someone. And in the case of Holy Days of Obligation, that “Someone” is God himself.

...if we love him, if we truly love him with our whole hearts and minds, then we will obey him and do that which we are obliged to do as his disciples.

“The precepts of the Church are set in the context of a moral life bound to and nourished by liturgical life. The obligatory character of these positive laws decreed by the pastoral authorities is meant to guarantee to the faithful the indispensable minimum in the spirit of prayer and moral effort, in the growth in love of God and neighbor” (CCC 2041).

...if someone asks why they are obligated to go to Mass on All Saints Day, before giving them the Scriptural and traditional reasons why, we should first ask, “Why would you want to pass up Mass in the first place?” As I mentioned, love comes first, and then obedience. We do what is asked of us because we love.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA)

Do you want to understand the Catholic Church better?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you will consider joining Holy Trinity's Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA).

Our OCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church's beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church, their foundation in Scripture and Tradition, the truth and beauty of the Church, and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church and to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our OCIA process to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.
