Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Do you want to better understand the Catholic Church?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes… and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not yet received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you’ll consider the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church’s beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty…as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church at Easter, when we celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process, to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE… AND ETERNITY TO GAIN!

For more information, please contact us at (719) 633-2132, Ext. 0 or rcia@holytrinitycos.org.

Adult Catholic Studies

Please join our
Holy Trinity Adult Catholic Studies classes
Sunday mornings at 10AM in the Hope House.

On October 30th, we will start a study of Solanus Casey, the first American-born man to be beatified.

Born the 6th of 16 children, he entered seminary after a conversion experience but was dismissed because of his struggles with Latin and German.

After a novena to Mary, he heard a voice telling him to enter the monastery of the Capuchins in Detroit. Ranked in the bottom half of that class, he was nevertheless eventually ordained a simplex priest.

Designated a simple porter, his holiness drew many to him. Listening to people for up to 16 hours a day, he could ‘read souls’ and was often able to counsel people to prepare for heavy crosses to come.

On November 6th, we will not have class.

On November 13th, we will conclude our look at the life of Bl. Solanus Casey. A very humble man, Fr. Solanus once said, “I have two loves, the sick and the poor.” His belief in selflessly extending God’s love to those in need led him to his idea of “blending.” He said we’re all called to have our lives blend with God, completely uniting with Him.

Solanus also stressed the importance of gratitude. He urged people to appreciate everything, even in the midst of trials, and to give thanks ‘in advance.”

Please join us to learn more about this exceptional priest, porter, and prophet.

Oct 30 Solanus Casey, Part 1
Nov 6 No Class
Nov 13 Solanus Casey, Part 2

Please see the bulletin boards or contact Phil & Connie at ppratt@holytrinitycos.org for more information.

“LAST CALL” FOR RECIPES

We’ve been asking for your recipes since July, and we’ve been steadily entering them into the software to create the cookbook. This is your last reminder — the deadline to contribute recipes is Tuesday, November 1.

Email us at htcscookbook@yahoo.com and attach your recipes, or type them right into the email. If you don’t email, type or print your recipes and drop them off in a basket in the foyer (please include your name and number in case we have questions). If you are really techy and have a good copy of your recipe, take a legible photo of the recipe and email it to us.

THANK YOU to all who have sent in your recipes. Everything looks so yummy. The cookbook will contain more than 300 recipes from current and former parishioners and clergy. We are anxious to see the finished book – we expect it to be wonderful (if we do say so ourselves).

If you have questions, please email us or ask the Office for contact information for Susan Pavlica or Judie Scott.

Special Indulgence for the Holy Souls

In order to encourage the practice of praying for the dead, the Church has granted a plenary indulgence that can be applied to the souls in purgatory if the faithful make a visit to a cemetery to pray for the dead from the 1st November until the 8th day of November. It can be applied to our loved ones or to a soul with no-one to pray for them. The indulgence can be gained on each day. To obtain the indulgence the usual conditions apply: the visitation to a cemetery or a Church where souls are buried, sacramental confession (within 7 days), Eucharistic communion, prayer for the Holy Father’s intentions (Creed, Our Father, Hail Mary and a Glory be) and a detachment from all sins. (cfr. Apostolic Constitution on Indulgences nos 7&8)

The receipt of a plenary indulgence means that the Holy Soul is freed from all the temporal punishment due to sin and as such can enter fully into heaven with the Lord. Therefore, it is a great grace to apply this indulgence to a departed loved one or even to someone who has no-one to pray for them as you can already think of them enjoying the eternal beatitude with the Lord.
