His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?' ...So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

Do you want to better understand the Catholic Church?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes... and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not yet received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you'll consider the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church's beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church at Easter, when we celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process, to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE... AND ETERNITY TO GAIN!

For more information, please contact us at (719) 633-2132, Ext. 0 or rcia@holyltrinitycos.org.

Prayer: Into the Deep

While vocal prayer like the Rosary is good, the Doctors of the Church think it's not enough. For example, St. Teresa of Avila says, "If you do not practice mental prayer, you don't need any devil to throw you into hell; you throw yourself there of your own accord."

In this series, Avila Institute founder Dan Burke explains the foundations of prayer which he has taught to hundreds of seminarians and priests.

After distinguishing between the non-Christian East and Christian Theism and sharing key signs of false teaching, Burke tells us what mental prayer actually is...and then teaches us how to do it.

In his five classes, Dan Burke covers:

- Sept 17 'Yes'- Doorway to Authentic Prayer
- Sep 24 Clearing the Confusion
- Oct 1 Mental Prayer-Part 1
- Oct 8 Mental Prayer-Part 2
- Oct 15 Prayer, Conversion, and Witness

REFRESH YOUR FAITH!

During the six years we’ve taught RCIA, we’ve had a number of life-long Catholics join us, either because they were serving as sponsors or because they suspected they hadn’t gotten good catechesis as teens. They all later told us they learned so much they hadn’t known before.

So, this year, we are offering our program – including clips from beautiful videos featuring master Catholic teachers – to any of you who’d like to learn more about our wonderful Faith and also find out how to effectively share it with non-Catholic or fallen-away family and friends.

(The Refresher Course will also invite you into the special fellowship good Catholics dearly need, particularly now, when there is so much chaos and confusion in our world.)

Our first class – a short one entitled Overview and The Journey of Faith – will be Sunday, September 17th, at 11:30 am in the Hope House. Please, please join us! If you plan to attend or need more information, contact Phil and Connie Pratt at ppratt@holyltrinitycos.org.

Ten Ways to Fall in Love with the Eucharist

Fr. Ed Broom, OMV

The saints are the great lovers of Jesus; they were on earth and now are in heaven loving God for all eternity. In this article, we will give a list of what some saints have said in an excess of love for the most Holy Eucharist. Then we will give ten keys to unlock the gems to help you love the Eucharist even more! Let us read and meditate on the fire of the saints and the Eucharist:

“Holy Communion is the shortest and the safest way to Heaven.” (St. Pius X)

“If the angels could be jealous of men, they would be for one reason: Holy Communion.” (St. Maximilian Kolbe)

“In one day the Eucharist will make you produce more for the glory of God than a whole lifetime without it.” (St. Peter Julian Eymard)

“How I love the feasts!... I especially loved the processions in honor of the Blessed Sacrament. What a joy it was for me to throw flowers beneath the feet of God!... I was never so happy as when I saw my roses touch the sacred Monstrance.” (St. Therese the Little Flower)

“When you look at the Crucifix, you understand how much Jesus loved you then. When you look at the Sacred Host you understand how much Jesus loves you now.” (Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta)

“From the Eucharist comes strength to live the Christian life and zeal to share that life with others.” (St. John Paul II)

“This is the bread of everlasting life which supports the substance of your soul.” (St. Ambrose)

“The longer you stay away from Communion, the more your soul will be weak, and in the end you will become dangerously indifferent.” (St. John Bosco)

“The Eucharist is the consummation of the whole spiritual life.” (St. Thomas Aquinas)

Now let us dive into ten golden keys that can open up the infinite treasure house of jewels so as to derive countless graces and blessings from Jesus’ greatest Gift to the entire world: Holy Mass and Holy Communion, His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity!

1. Faith

Beg the Lord for a greater faith in the sublime mystery of the most Holy Eucharist. Let us say with the Apostles Saint Thomas: “My Lord and my God.” Let us also say the prayer of the man of the Gospel: “Lord I believe but strengthen my faith!”

2. Visit

Make it a habit to visit the most Blessed Sacrament as often as is possible. Hopefully when we die Jesus will not reproach us with these words: “Whenever I see a church I stop to make a visit so that when I die the Lord will not say: ‘Who is it!’” Friends meet to chat, talk, and enjoy each other’s company; so should we, in visiting and talking frequently to Jesus.

3. Spiritual Communion

Highly recommended by St. Alphonsus Liguori as well as Pope Benedict XVI in his document “Sacramentum Caritatis” is the frequent practice of the Spiritual Communion. It can be done in a simple manner and as often as your heart desires. You can say the simple prayer: “Jesus I believe that you are truly present in the Tabernacle in your Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. Now I cannot receive you sacramentally but come at least spiritually into my heart.” Then enter into your heart and thank, praise and love the Lord who has come spiritually into your soul. This can fan the flame of love for our Eucharistic Lord.

4. Read John 6

The Gospel of John, chapter six has three parts: Jesus multiplies the loaves, walks on water, and then He gives a sublime discourse related to the Eucharist; actually it is a Eucharistic prophecy. Best known as the “Bread of Life discourse”, Jesus promises to give us the Bread of Life. Also, Jesus points out in no unclear terms that our immortal salvation depends upon our eating His Body and drinking His Blood, which obviously refers to Holy Communion. Read and meditate on this powerful chapter!

5. Fifteen Minutes

Years ago there was published a small booklet with the title “Fifteen Minutes with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament”. It is a little gem where Jesus encourages the reader to enter into simple but profound conversation with Him. Basically, Jesus wants to be our Best Friend and challenges us to open up the secret mysteries of our heart to Him and only He can truly understand the inner secrets, wounds and mysteries in our heart. Read and pray in front of the Blessed Sacrament!

6. Holy Hour

Get into the habit of making a daily Holy Hour in front of the most Blessed Sacrament. It will transform your life if you persevere in the practice. The Great Servant of God, Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen, who made his Holy Hour faithfully for more than fifty years, called it The Hour of Power.

7. Adorn and Embellish Churches & the Eucharist

The woman lavished her expensive nard on the feet of Jesus; she wept and her tears came pouring forth on the feet of Jesus; finally, she wiped Jesus’ feet with her hair (Lk. 7:36-50). Fulton Sheen points out that this is symbolic of the gestures of love and attention we should manifest in the way we adorn, embellish and beautify the Churches and tabernacles where Jesus abides.

Known for his spirit of penance, fasting, and sacrifice, the Cure of Ars would travel long distances and expend big sums of money to purchase the best for his little Church. Why? For the simple reason that Jesus—the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords—abides in the tabernacle and descends from heaven in the hands of the priest in every consecrated Host. “O come let us adore Him!”

8. Holy Mass and Holy Communion

Of course, the greatest act is the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The greatest gesture any human being can accomplish is to assist at Mass and to receive Holy Communion with faith, devotion, reverence and awe but especially with a passionate love.

Whenever possible, go to daily Mass. Arrive early to prepare yourself. Offer your own private intentions. Participate in Holy Mass fully, actively and consciously. Receive Holy Communion as if it were your first Holy Communion, last Holy Communion, and only Holy Communion. Be exceedingly thankful for your faith in such a sublime and august mystery! Do not rush out of the Church after Mass, as if your pants were on fire! Rather, spend some time after Holy Mass to render abundant thanks to Jesus for such a sublime gift. Actually, the word “Eucharist” means Thanksgiving. What a sublime gift, free of charge. The only condition is lively faith and a heart overflowing with love for Jesus the greatest of all lovers!

9. A.C.T.S

Remember the four principal ends or purpose of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass—A.C.T.: A—stands for adoration. The primary purpose of Holy Mass is to offer adoration to God the Father, by the offering of Jesus the Victim and through the power of the Holy Spirit.

C—stands for contrition. Our hearts should be contrite, humble, and repentant of our many sins. It is a great practice to offer our Mass and Holy Communion in reparation for our sins, the sin of our families as well as in reparation for the sins of the whole world. “For the sake of His sorrowful passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.”

T—stands for thanksgiving. Everything that we have in this life—with the exception of our own sins—is a pure gift from God. Therefore, we should be overflowing and abounding in the thanksgiving. “With the Psalmist let us pray: ‘Give thanks to the Lord for He is good; His love endures forever.’”

S—Stands for supplication; in other words we should offer prayers of fervent intercession and petition for the many needs of the world: the world at large, the Church, the conversion of sinners, the sick, the dying, our own personal family needs, the souls in purgatory, and much more.

10. Eucharistic Missionary

As Mary received Jesus in the Annunciation and promptly and quickly brought Jesus to her cousin Elizabeth, so should we bring Jesus to others, and others to Jesus. This can be done in a very concrete manner by encouraging Catholic lost sheep wandering in the wilderness back to the fold. The second largest religious group in the United States are non-practicing Catholics.

Find the time, manner, effort and initiative to invite some lost soul back to Church. Hopefully he or she can make a good confession and return to the reception of Holy Communion and to the loving embrace of God the Father. All this might take place if you simply trust God and take the initiative to welcome them back! God is so loving and good! Share the Good News to the entire world!

"You have a gift. You have a talent. Find your gift. Find your talent. And use it. You can make life better in this world just by letting your light shine and by doing your part." Sr. Thea Bowman, FSPA

Stewardship in Light of the Gospel of Luke

Stewardship is Grounded in Scripture

Above all, let your love for one another be intense, because love covers a multitude of sins. Be hospitable to one another without complaining. As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace. Whoever preaches, let it be with the words of God; whoever serves, let it be with the strength that God supplies, so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

- 1 Peter 4:8-11

Everything comes from God

When do God's sons and daughters realize that everything they have really comes from God, belongs to God, and that they are stewards and managers of goods that don't belong to them ... that God intended that they use these gifts for the benefit of others? It dawns on some people early in life, some on their deathbed, and others miss it entirely. If and when that insight does come, it usually doesn't come from a long reasoning process. It's one of those deep-down truths that simply dawns on a person in a flash of insight. It is, in the end, a grace from God. To catch that insight, and live by it, is called stewardship.
