RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

Do you want to better understand the Catholic Church?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes... and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not yet received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you'll consider the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church's beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church at Easter, when we celebrate the sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process, to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE...
AND ETERNITY TO GAIN!

For more information, please contact us at (719) 633-2132, Ext. 0 or rcia@holytrinitycos.org.

Adult Catholic Studies

Prayer: Into the Deep

While vocal prayer like the Rosary is good, the Doctors of the Church think it's not enough. For example, St. Teresa of Avila says, "If you do not practice mental prayer, you don't need any devil to throw you into hell; you throw yourself there of your own accord."

In this series, Avila Institute founder Dan Burke explains the foundations of prayer which he has taught to hundreds of seminarians and priests.

After distinguishing between the non-Christian East and Christian Theism and sharing key signs of false teaching, Burke tells us what mental prayer actually is...and then teaches us how to do it.

In his five classes, Dan Burke covers:

Sept 17 'Yes'- Doorway to Authentic Prayer
Sep 24 Clearing the Confusion
Oct 1 Mental Prayer-Part 1
Oct 8 Mental Prayer-Part 2
Oct 15 Prayer, Conversion, and Witness

REFRESH YOUR FAITH!

During the six years we've taught RCIA, we've had a number of life-long Catholics join us, either because they were serving as sponsors or because they suspected they hadn't gotten good catechesis as teens. They all later told us they learned so much they hadn't known before.

So, this year, we are offering our program – including clips from beautiful videos featuring master Catholic teachers – to any of you who'd like to learn more about our wonderful Faith and also find out how to effectively share it with non-Catholic or fallen-away family and friends.

(The Refresher Course will also invite you into the special fellowship good Catholics dearly need, particularly now, when there is so much chaos and confusion in our world.)

Our first class – a short one entitled Overview and The Journey of Faith – will be Sunday, September 17th, at 11:30 am in the Hope House. Please, please join us! If you plan to attend or need more information, contact Phil and Connie Pratt at pprat@holytrinitycos.org.

Catholic FYI

1952 There are different expressions of the moral law, all of them interrelated:

eternal law - the source, in God, of all law; natural law; revealed law, comprising the Old Law and the New Law, or Law of the Gospel; finally, civil and ecclesiastical laws.

1959 The natural law, the Creator's very good work, provides the solid foundation on which man can build the structure of moral rules to guide his choices. It also provides the indispensable moral foundation for building the human community. Finally, it provides the necessary basis for the civil law with which it is connected, whether by a reflection that draws conclusions from its principles, or by additions of a positive and juridical nature.

1960 The precepts of natural law are not perceived by everyone clearly and immediately. In the present situation sinful man needs grace and revelation so moral and religious truths may be known "by everyone with facility, with firm certainty and with no admixture of error." The natural law provides revealed law and grace with a foundation prepared by God and in accordance with the work of the Spirit.

Read more about these forms of law in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.
