Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Do you want to understand the Catholic Church better?

Do you wonder what your Catholic spouse believes and why?

Have you ever thought about entering the Catholic Church?

Have you been baptized but have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation?

If you answered yes to any of these, we hope you will consider joining Holy Trinity's Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Our RCIA program offers the opportunity to learn about the Church's beliefs, Biblical foundations, and beauty...as well as her 2000-year-old history, traditions, and practices.

Our classes focus on the teaching of the Church, their foundation in Scripture and Tradition, the truth and beauty of the Church, and the experience of being Catholic. They will prepare you to enter the Church and to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation.

Please join our RCIA process to ask your questions, get answers, and share your own insights and faith story.

RCIA Inquiry classes typically begin in August.

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE...
AND ETERNITY TO GAIN!

Adult Catholic Studies

With many frightening things facing us today, including attacks on churches and people of faith, we need help overcoming our fear. Popular Catholic speaker Chris Stefanick says that if we build up and practice the gift of fortitude the way we build up and use muscle, it will help us become fearless.

On September 8th, Chris talks to Navy Seal Dom Raso. When Chris asks Dom if he feels fear when stepping into dangerous situations, he answers "100%." But he says if we let that fear control us, it will prevent us from becoming what Matthew Kelly calls "the best version of ourselves." Dom then offers suggestions which he thinks will help us.

On September 15th, Chris' daughter Rosemary tells how she overcame her fear when she realized Multiple Sclerosis was the cross God was giving her to get her to Heaven.

Chris then talks with Fr. Dave Pivonka, President of Franciscan University, who says to instill fear in us is what our culture wants... and what Satan wants, too. Father notes that the first words Adam said after his sin were "I was afraid..." Father also talks about the servant in Scripture who, in fear, buried his talents rather than using them.

Our upcoming Adult Catholic Studies classes:

Sep 8 Five Ways to Manage Fear
Sep 15 Faith Over Fear
Sep 22 Fear and Spiritual Warfare
Sep 29 Fear of Being Cancelled

Holy Trinity Adult Catholic Studies meets Sundays at 10 am in the Hope House.

Catholic FYI

September commemorates Our Lady of Sorrows.

Traditionally, the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows commemorates the seven sorrows in the Heart of Mary as recorded in Scripture:

The prophecy of Simeon (Luke 2:33–35)

The flight into Egypt (Matthew 2:13–15)

Loss of the Child Jesus for three days (Luke 2:41–50)

Mary meets Jesus on His way to Calvary (Luke 23:27–31; John 19:17)

Crucifixion and Death of Jesus (John 19:25–30)

The body of Jesus being taken from the Cross (Luke 23:50–54; John 19:31–37)

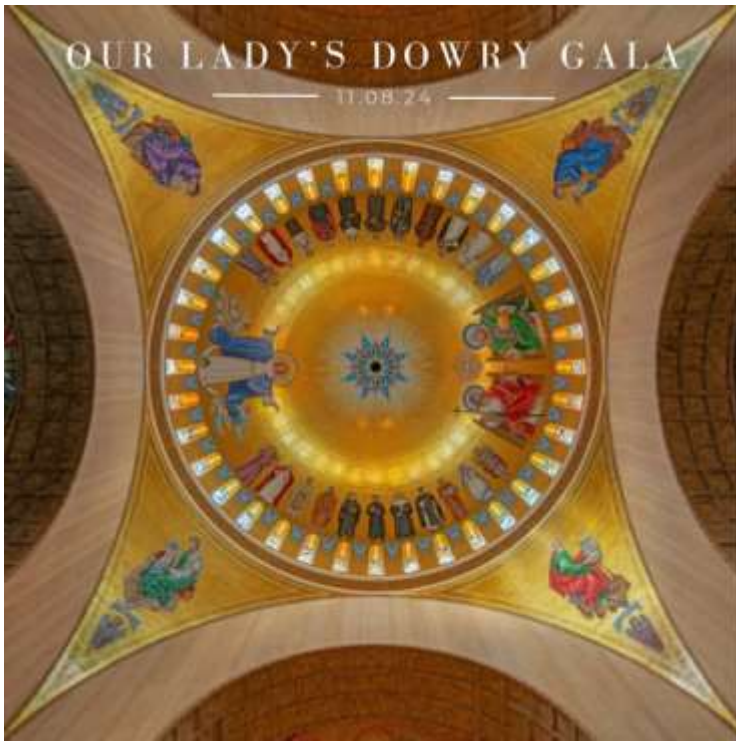

The burial of Jesus (Isaiah 53:8–9; Luke 23:50–56; John 19:38–42; Mark 15:40–47)

As we honor the Blessed Mother's Sorrowful Heart, it's important to understand that a "sorrowful" heart is not the same as a "sad" heart. Theologically speaking, sadness results from a form of self-pity, or an unhealthy attachment to something that was lost. Sorrow, on the other hand, is one of the Beatitudes, and therefore one of the holiest qualities we can possess. "Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted" (Matthew 5:4). To "mourn" is to have a sorrowful heart. In this context of the Beatitudes, a heart that mourns is a heart that loves. Mourning, or holy sorrow, results from a heart that witnesses sin and grieves over it. In the Blessed Mother's case, she witnessed the brutal treatment of her Son, His rejection, suffering, and death. She did not despair as she witnessed this. She did not become angry. She did not succumb to confusion and frustration. She did not withdraw into herself in self-pity. Instead, she reacted with the empathetic love that flows from the holiest of hearts. She felt holy sorrow—not so much because she felt bad for her Son, but because she grieved over the sins that inflicted that suffering, and longed to see those sins redeemed.

HELP WANTED

We are in need of more SACRISTANS to assist before and after Mass. Sacristans support the clergy in the following ways:

- ◊ Set up the altar, including placing the vessels on the altar, putting hosts in the Ciborium and wine and water in the Cruets, and lighting the candles
- ◊ Place fresh batteries in the microphone on the ambo (and turn it on)
- ◊ Check in with the scheduled lectors, to ensure both are present
- ◊ Count attendees at Mass
- ◊ After Mass, return items to the Sacristy, do a second cleaning of the vessels, and extinguish the candles

We need additional Sacristans at 5:00 and 9:00. Training will be provided by the Deacons and current Sacristans. You can shadow a Sacristan for a few weeks and then be scheduled in the latter part of the Oct-Jan schedule, which will be coming out later this month.

Interested? Email Chuck Pavlica at c.pavlica@yahoo.com or call the Office.
